15-16-101. Treasurer to publish notice — manner of publication. (1) Within 10 days after the receipt of the assessment book, the county treasurer must publish a notice specifying:

(a) that one-half of all taxes levied and assessed will be due and payable before 5 p.m. on November 30 next thereafter and that unless paid prior thereto the amount then due will be delinquent and will draw interest at the rate of 5/6 of 1% per month from and after such delinquency until paid and 2% will be added to the delinquent taxes as a penalty;

(b) that one-half of all taxes levied and assessed will be due and payable on or before 5 p.m. on May 31 next thereafter and that unless paid prior to said date said taxes will be delinquent and will draw interest at the rate of 5/6 of 1% per month from and after such delinquency until paid and 2% will be added to the delinquent taxes as a penalty; and

(c) the time and place at which payment of taxes may be made.

(2) He must send to the last-known address of each taxpayer written notice, postage prepaid, showing the amount of taxes and assessments due the current year and the amount due and delinquent for other years. The written notice shall include:

(a) the taxable value of the property;

(b) the total mill levy applied to that taxable value;

(c) the value of each mill in that county;

(d) itemized city services and special improvement district assessments collected by the county;

(e) the number of the school district in which the property is located; and

(f) the amount of the total tax due that is levied as city tax, county tax, state tax, school district tax, and other tax.

(3) The municipality shall, upon request of the county treasurer, provide the information to be included under subsection (2)(d) ready for mailing.

(4) The notice in every case must be published for 2 weeks in some weekly or daily newspaper published in the county, if there is one, or if there is not, then by posting it in three public places. The failure to publish or post notices does not relieve the taxpayer from any of his liabilities. Any failure to give notice of the tax due for the current year or of delinquent tax will not affect the legality of the tax.

(b) ends with the third week after the first week for which there is a state "off" indicator or the 13th consecutive week of such period.

(2) (a) "Rate of insured unemployment", for purposes of 39-51-2504 and 39-51-2505, means the percentage derived by dividing the average weekly number of individuals filing claims for regular benefits in this state for weeks of unemployment with respect to the most recent 13-consecutive-week period, as determined by the department on the basis of his reports to the U.S. secretary of labor, by the average monthly employment covered under this chapter for the first 4 of the most recent 6 completed calendar quarters ending before the end of such 13-week period.

(b) Computations required by the provisions of subsection (2)(a) shall be made by the department in accordance with regulations prescribed by the U.S. secretary of labor.

(a) has received, prior to such week, all of the regular benefits that were available to him under this chapter or any other state law, including dependents' allowances and benefits payable to federal civilian employees and ex-servicemen under 5 U.S.C. chapter 85, in his current benefit year that includes such week; provided, that for the purposes of this subsection, an individual shall be deemed to have received all of the regular benefits that were available to him although, as a result of a pending appeal with respect to wages that were not considered in the original monetary determination in his benefit year, he may subsequently be determined to be entitled to added regular benefits;

(b) his benefit year having expired prior to such week, has no or insufficient wages on the basis of which he could establish a new benefit year that would include such week;

(c) has no right to unemployment benefits or allowances, as the case may be, under the Railroad Unemployment Insurance Act, the Trade Expansion Act of 1962, the Automotive Products Trade Act of 1965, and such other federal laws as are specified in regulations issued by the U.S. secretary of labor; and 1981 Special Session Amendment: Inserted "except as provided in section 2, Chapter 11, Special Laws 1981" after "not exceeding 13 ½ mills"; made a minor change in grammar.

Matching State Grant: Section 2, Ch. 11, Sp. L. 1981, provided: "(1) A county may apply to the department for a matching grant-in-aid. The matching grant-in-aid is a state contribution of 50% of the county cost of providing assistance to the needy for all lawful poor fund purposes, except subsidy to a medical facility.

(2) The grant shall be awarded if the board of county commissioners or an executive officer of a county makes written application to the department certifying:

(a) that the county has budgeted for a mill levy in excess of 8 mills for the county poor fund;

(b) that the county has, or within a reasonable time will have, expended from the poor fund an amount raised by 8 mills;

(c) that such expenditures were reasonable and necessary, according to criteria set by the department in its rules adopted for such purposes, for the county to meet its obligations under law to provide assistance to the needy; and

(d) that the county participates in or operates a work program, as authorized by 53-3-304, that has been approved by the department.

(3) Upon determination that a county has met the conditions for a matching grant-in-aid, the state shall financially participate in 50% of all further lawful poor fund expenditures, except those for a medical facility subsidy, until such time that a county qualifies for an emergency grant-in-aid. The department may at its discretion advance funds to a county for the state's matching contribution for poor fund expenditures, or it may reimburse a county for such expenditures.

(4) (a) A county receiving a matching grant-in-aid may not levy more than ½ mill for each 1-mill expenditure equivalent over 8 mills for poor fund purposes except to subsidize a medical facility.

(b) For the purposes of 53-2-323, a county has exhausted all sources of revenue whenever its lawful poor fund expenditures (other than a subsidy for a medical facility) plus the state matching contribution has reached an amount equivalent to the revenues that could have been raised by the maximum mill levy authorized by 53-2-321.

(5) The department may adopt rules to implement this section."

1981 Special Session Title: The title to Ch. 11, Sp. L. 1981 (HB 13), read: "An act to provide that a county will receive a 50 percent state matching grant-in-aid if it has a work program after expending 8 mills of the 13.5 mill county poor fund for assistance to the needy; amending section 53-2-321, MCA; providing an effective date and termination date."

Statement of Intent: The statement of intent attached to HB 13 (Ch. 11, Sp. L. 1981) provided: "A statement of intent is necessary for this bill because section 2 [Ch. 11, Sp. L. 1981] grants rulemaking authority to the department of social and rehabilitation services.

The department is to make rules defining reasonable and necessary expenses of a county poor fund both for the purposes of expenditures prior to the time a county qualifies for a state matching grant-in-aid and for defining reasonable and necessary expenditures that the state shall participate in. The rules are expected to be guidelines that adequately forewarn counties as to the expenses that they can reasonably expect to be recognized by the state, yet not restrict a county's ability to locally operate its assistance program except insofar as a legitimate state interest is involved because of state financial participation.

The department may also adopt guidelines for state approval of work programs. It is preferred that the department will establish minimum and perhaps maximum standards allowing a county latitude in formulating a meaningful work program based upon its caseload and geographical location. The county plan adopted with these guidelines would then be subject to department approval.

Because of the uniqueness of this act the department may adopt rules governing the administration of the state matching grant-in-aid. Such matters as county reporting, methods of application, manner or actual funds advancement or reimbursement, and other matters which if properly addressed by rule will prevent repetitious ad-hoc decisions relating to different counties and, within the bounds of law, to provide simple and economical administration of the state matching grant-in-aid and to encourage county work programs.

The rules to implement this section shall be applicable only for the purposes of the state matching grant-in-aid. This act confers no rulemaking authority to the department to mandate eligibility, necessary expenses, work programs or other matters involving counties not otherwise eligible or not electing to receive state matching grants-in-aid. The rules promulgated to administer this act may, where applicable, be coordinated with rules for emergency grants-in-aid.

Adopted by the House Local Government Committee, November 20, 1981."

Termination Date: Section 4, Ch. 11, Sp. L. 1981, provided: "This act shall terminate on June 30, 1983."

53-2-323. Emergency grants from state funds to counties. A county may apply to the department for an emergency grant-in-aid, and the grant shall be made to the county upon the following conditions:

(1) The board of county commissioners or a duly elected or appointed executive officer of the county shall make written application to the department for emergency assistance and shall show by written report and sworn affidavit of the county clerk and recorder and chairman of the board of county commissioners or other duly elected or appointed executive officer of the county the following:

(a) that the county will not be able to meet its obligations under law to provide assistance to the needy of the county or meet its proportionate share of any public assistance activity carried on jointly with the department;

(b) that all lawful sources of revenue and other income to the county poor fund will be exhausted;

(c) that all expenditures from the county poor fund have been lawfully made; and

(d) that all expenditures from the county poor fund have been reasonable and necessary, according to criteria set by the department in rules adopted for that purpose, for the county to meet its obligations under law to provide assistance to the needy.

(2) Within 10 days of receipt of the application and affidavit, the department shall determine whether the county poor fund will be depleted and shall give notice to the county of the department's intention to deny or allow the grant-in-aid. Before a grant-in-aid for any fiscal year may be made to a county under this section, any money credited during that fiscal year to the depletion allowance reserve fund from the sources provided by 7-34-2402(2) shall be transferred to the county poor fund to be used for lawful poor fund expenditures. The amount of the grant-in-aid shall be determined after all sources of income available to the poor fund, including the depletion allowance reserve fund transfers, have been exhausted.

(3) Within 10 days of receiving notice from the department that a grant-in-aid will be made to the county, the board of county commissioners or other duly elected or appointed executive officer of the county shall adopt an emergency budget. There is no requirement of notice and hearing for that emergency budget. The emergency budget shall state the amount required to meet the obligation of the county and shall allocate that whole amount among the various classes of expenditures for which the grant was made.

(4) Upon receipt and approval of the county emergency budget, the department shall issue a warrant to the county treasurer of the county for the total amount stated in the approved emergency budget.

(5) The grant-in-aid received by the county shall be placed in an emergency fund account to be kept separate and distinct from the poor fund account. All expenditures from the emergency fund account shall be made by a separate series of warrants or checks marked as emergency warrants or checks.

(6) The grants-in-aid from the department may be used only for public assistance activities lawfully conducted by the county, including but not limited to medical aid, hospitalization, and institutional care. No part of a grant-in-aid may be used, directly or indirectly, to pay for the erection or improvement of any county building or for furniture, fixtures, appliances, or equipment for a county building.

(7) In the event the county poor fund is replenished by other lawful sources of revenue, the county shall issue warrants to meet its obligations from the county poor fund until such time as that fund is again so depleted that warrants can no longer lawfully be drawn on that account. Upon depletion of the county poor fund, the county may again make disbursements from the emergency fund account as provided in subsection (5). At the close of the county fiscal year, the county shall return to the department any amounts remaining in the county poor fund and the emergency fund account, but the remaining amount to be returned may not exceed the total amount of the emergency grant-in-aid for that fiscal year.

(8) Any amount which is unlawfully disbursed or transferred from the emergency fund account or used for a purpose other than that specified in the grant-in-aid shall be returned by the county to the department.

PREFACE

Adoption

Senate Bill No. 1, adopting the Montana Code Annotated (cited "MCA"), was passed by the 1979 Legislature and became effective January 10, 1979. That bill, which became Chapter 1, Laws of 1979, follows this preface. The provisions of law relating to recodification are found in Title 1, Chapter 11, MCA.

Codification

The MCA is a compilation of existing permanent law, including the acts of the 47th Legislature of 1981. Appropriation acts, resolutions, and laws temporary or special in character such as repealing, validating, severability, or effective date clauses are not codified. A list of R.C.M. 1947 sections not codified may be found in the Table of Corresponding Code Sections, 1978, green tab; the same information is contained in the Table of Corresponding Code Sections, R.C.M. 1947 to MCA, contained in Vol. 1 of the annotations, which provides the disposition of all R.C.M. 1947 sections. Whenever 1981 law was not codified, the existence of such law is noted in a compiler's comment printed below a related code section.

Arrangement

The Montana Code Annotated is arranged topically. This feature distinguishes the MCA from the 1947 code, in which the titles were arranged alphabetically. The user of the MCA will find titles that relate closely to one another logically and topically grouped together in the code. This arrangement results from four years of work that saw 15 revisions in the arrangement of titles. Continuous rearrangement designed to maintain an orderly and logical arrangement will be a permanent feature of the code under authority of Section 1-11-204(5)(b), MCA. Continuous revision should preclude the need for bulk revision in the future. The Legislative Council staff wants to hear your suggestions throughout the life of the code to assist in this effort.

Numbering System

The code uses a three element numbering system, familiar to 1947 code users because it is the numbering system incorporated in relatively recent enactments such as the Uniform Commercial Code, Uniform Probate Code, and the Criminal Code. The number to the far left designates the title number, the number between the hyphens designates the chapter number, and the number to the right, the part and section number. Thus, 1-11-111 would indicate Title 1, Chapter 11, Part 1, Section 11 (cited "section 1-11-111, MCA"). Numbering is sequential but numbers within chapters and parts and between titles have been skipped to leave room for future expansion.

Editorial Changes

During the recodification process the Council staff screened statutes for obsolescence, conflicts, unconstitutionality, incorrect grammar, spelling, capitalization, punctuation, numbering, and paragraphing.

Changes in style that could be made in the text without changing the substance of the law have been incorporated by the staff throughout the code. Other errors, inconsistencies, and unconstitutional statutes that were discovered were corrected by bills introduced in the 1977, 1979, and 1981 Legislative sessions at the request of the Code Commissioner.

Nonsubstantive changes include changes in the following areas:

(a) Punctuation. Being heavily laden with commas, the 1947 code did not conform with the more modern "open" style of punctuation that follows a sparing use of the comma. The modern style allowed deletion of an average of five commas per section and more than 125,000 commas from the new code with no change in its meaning, but with clarity enhanced.

(b) Spelling. The staff corrected obvious misspellings and updated archaic spellings with preferred spelling according to Webster's New World Dictionary.

(c) Grammatical Construction. There were three types of change that were made often under this category. One was making pronouns agree with their antecedents in number, gender, and person. Changing "nor" to "or" was also commonly done. "Nor" should not be used in the same clause with any other negative except "neither". Third, a verb often had to be changed to agree in number with the subject of a sentence.

(d) Internal Numbering. A uniform system of numbering internal paragraphs in a section was used: (1)(2)(3), (a)(b)(c), (i)(ii)(iii), (A)(B)(C). Thus, if the R.C.M. section began with "(a)(b)(c)," it was changed to "(1)(2)(3)," except for the Uniform Commercial Code, in which no changes in the numbering system were made.

(e) "This Act". The words "this act" were used thousands of times in the R.C.M. During recodification, "act" was changed wherever possible to a more precise term such as "title," "chapter," "part," or "section." The original act was studied to determine exactly to which statutes the words "this act" applied, and the appropriate references were then substituted.

(f) Effective Date. The calendar date was inserted whenever possible for expressions such as "the effective date of this act," after "passage and approval," or "hereafter."

(g) Changes or Insertions Because of Rearrangement. Language was inserted or changed whenever necessary because of rearrangement.

(h) Redundancy. Redundant words were eliminated.

(i) Obsolete or Inaccurate References to Offices or Agencies. There were many code sections needing changes because later acts affected names and terminology. For instance, the Executive Reorganization Act of 1971 abolished or renamed hundreds of offices and agencies. The recodification staff members searched the code for references to abolished or renamed offices and agencies. They also studied any amendments made between 1971 and 1977 that made further changes in the executive branch. After careful study to determine the exact state of the law, the language was changed during the recodification process to reflect the current legal status of all affected offices or agencies.

Code Commissioner Report

All changes, other than punctuation, capitalization, and spelling, made by the staff during the initial recodification are reported in a Code Commissioner Official Report contained in the unnumbered volume of the MCA 1978 (red). Following each legislative session, all such changes made since the last report are reported and published in the annotations, Vol. 1. (see Section 1-11-204(5)(c)MCA).

Effect of Changes

No presumption of legislative construction is to be drawn from the MCA code arrangement (Section 1-11-103, MCA). In case of inconsistencies resulting from omissions or other errors in the recodification, the version of the official enrolled bill on file with the Secretary of State will prevail. The recodification does not change the law, and the effect of each statute is the same as when originally enacted. Because the Code Commissioner has no legislative power, there can be no change in the law without legislative sanction. The function of recodification is to reorganize law, thus any changes in language are for the purpose of clarity, not for change in meaning.

Contents

(a) Constitution and Rules of Court. The code as adopted by Chapter 1, Laws of 1979, consists only of statute text and histories. The 1972 Montana Constitution, the Montana Rules of Civil Procedure, the Montana Rules of Appellate Civil Procedure, and the Montana Rules of Evidence are printed with the code for the convenience of the user.

(b) Compiler's Comments. Compiler's comments related to 1981 changes and to certain significant 1979 changes are printed with the code. Compiler's comments related to other items of permanent significance are contained in the annotations (See Preface to Annotations).

(c) Histories. The user is cautioned to note that the reported history of each section in the MCA brought forward from the former code is the same history of the section as it appeared in the old code. When an R.C.M. section is split into several MCA sections, the history may be confusing or even misleading. To redo all histories to have them coincide exactly with MCA sections would have been nearly impossible. Legislative histories begin with the Bannack Statutes of 1864–65. References to the California Code and the Field Codes of New York are also included since those codes are the source of Montana's 1892 Civil Code. Abbreviations used in the MCA histories are as follows:

Annotations

Annotations to the code are partially completed and appear in separate volumes correlating to the statute text. The Annotations are designed for insertion in three-ring binders and are released on a Title by Title basis as they are completed. See the Preface to Annotations in Vol. 1 of the annotations.

Index

The index is not complete. Certain titles are only "mini" indexed at this time. That is, they are indexed by title, chapter, and part but not individual sections. See the Preface and Guide to Usage of Index, which appears in Volume 9.

Part 1

General Provisions

1-2-101. Role of the judge — preference to construction giving each provision meaning. In the construction of a statute, the office of the judge is simply to ascertain and declare what is in terms or in substance contained therein, not to insert what has been omitted or to omit what has been inserted. Where there are several provisions or particulars, such a construction is, if possible, to be adopted as will give effect to all.
History: En. Sec. 612, p. 198, L. 1877; re-en. Sec. 612, 1st Div. Rev. Stat. 1879; re-en. Sec. 630, 1st Div. Comp. Stat. 1887; re-en. Sec. 3134, C. Civ. Proc. 1895; re-en. Sec. 7875, Rev. C. 1907; re-en. Sec. 10519, R.C.M. 1921; Cal. C. Civ. Proc. Sec. 1858; re-en. Sec. 10519, R.C.M. 1935; R.C.M. 1947, 93-401-15(part).

1-2-102. Intention of the legislature — particular and general provisions. In the construction of a statute, the intention of the legislature is to be pursued if possible. When a general and particular provision are inconsistent, the latter is paramount to the former, so a particular intent will control a general one that is inconsistent with it.

History: En. Sec. 613, p. 198, L. 1877; re-en. Sec. 613, 1st Div. Rev. Stat. 1879; re-en. Sec. 631, 1st Div. Comp. Stat. 1887; re-en. Sec. 3135, C. Civ. Proc. 1895; re-en. Sec. 7876, Rev. C. 1907; re-en. Sec. 10520, R.C.M. 1921; Cal. C. Civ. Proc. Sec. 1859; re-en. Sec. 10520, R.C.M. 1935; R.C.M. 1947, 93-401-16(part).

1-2-103. Statutes in derogation of the common law — liberal construction. The rule of the common law that statutes in derogation thereof are to be strictly construed has no application to the statutes of the state of Montana. The statutes establish the law of this state respecting the subjects to which they relate, and their provisions and all proceedings under them are to be liberally construed with a view to effect their objects and to promote justice.

History: En. Sec. 4, Pol. C. 1895; re-en. Sec. 4, Rev. C. 1907; amd. Sec. 2, Ch. 4, L. 1921; re-en. Sec. 4, R.C.M. 1921; Cal. Pol. C. Sec. 4; re-en. Sec. 4, R.C.M. 1935; R.C.M. 1947, 12-202.

1-2-104. Preference to construction favoring natural right. When a statute is equally susceptible of two interpretations, one in favor of natural right and the other against it, the former is to be adopted.

History: En. Sec. 620, p. 200, L. 1877; re-en. Sec. 620, 1st Div. Rev. Stat. 1879; re-en. Sec. 638, 1st Div. Comp. Stat. 1887; re-en. Sec. 3142, C. Civ. Proc. 1895; re-en. Sec. 7883, Rev. C. 1907; re-en. Sec. 10527, R.C.M. 1921; Cal. C. Civ. Proc. Sec. 1866; re-en. Sec. 10527, R.C.M. 1935; R.C.M. 1947, 93-401-23(part).

1-2-105. General definitional rules — verb tense, gender, and number. The following rules apply in this code:

(1) The present tense includes the future as well as the present.

(2) Words used in the masculine gender include the feminine and neuter.

(3) The singular includes the plural and the plural the singular.

History: En. Sec. 16, Pol. C. 1895; re-en. Sec. 16, Rev. C. 1907; amd. Sec. 4, Ch. 4, L. 1921; re-en. Sec. 16, R.C.M. 1921; Cal. Pol. C. Sec. 17; re-en. Sec. 16, R.C.M. 1935; amd. Sec. 1, Ch. 25, L. 1947; amd. Sec. 11-114, Ch. 264, L. 1963; amd. Sec. 3, Ch. 309, L. 1977; R.C.M. 1947, 19-103(part).

1-2-106. Construction of words and phrases. Words and phrases used in the statutes of Montana are construed according to the context and the approved usage of the language, but technical words and phrases and such others as have acquired a peculiar and appropriate meaning in law or are defined in chapter 1, part 2, as amended, are to be construed according to such peculiar and appropriate meaning or definition.

History: En. Sec. 15, Pol. C. 1895; re-en. Sec. 15, Rev. C. 1907; amd. Sec. 3, Ch. 4, L. 1921; re-en. Sec. 15, R.C.M. 1921; Cal. Pol. C. Sec. 16; re-en. Sec. 15, R.C.M. 1935; R.C.M. 1947, 19-102.

1-2-107. Applicability of definitions. Whenever the meaning of a word or phrase is defined in any part of this code, such definition is applicable to the same word or phrase wherever it occurs, except where a contrary intention plainly appears.

History: En. Sec. 4661, Civ. C. 1895; re-en. Sec. 6223, Rev. C. 1907; re-en. Sec. 8776, R.C.M. 1921; Field Civ. C. Sec. 2000; re-en. Sec. 8776, R.C.M. 1935; R.C.M. 1947, 12-215.

1-2-108. Reference to other titles, chapters, parts, or sections — subsequent amendments. (1) A statute which refers to a title, chapter, part, section, or subsection number without further identification or attribution is presumed, unless the context clearly indicates otherwise, to refer to a title, chapter, part, section, or subsection of the Montana Code Annotated.

(2) A specific or presumed reference to a title, chapter, part, section, or subsection of the Montana Code Annotated is presumed to be a reference to that title, chapter, part, section, or subsection as it may be amended or changed from time to time. This presumption may be overcome only by a clear showing that a subsequent amendment or change in the title, chapter, part, section, or subsection is inconsistent with the continued purpose or meaning of the section referring to it.

History: En. Sec. 1, Ch. 4, L. 1975; amd. Sec. 1, Ch. 309, L. 1977; R.C.M. 1947, 12-216; amd. Sec. 1, Ch. 30, L. 1979.

1-2-109. When laws retroactive. No law contained in any of the statutes of Montana is retroactive unless expressly so declared.

History: En. Sec. 3, Pol. C. 1895; re-en. Sec. 3, Rev. C. 1907; amd. Sec. 1, Ch. 4, L. 1921; re-en. Sec. 3, R.C.M. 1921; Cal. Pol. C. Sec. 3; re-en. Sec. 3, R.C.M. 1935; R.C.M. 1947, 12-201.

1-2-110. All statutes subject to repeal. Any statute may be repealed at any time except when it is otherwise provided therein. Persons acting under any statute are deemed to have acted in contemplation of this power of repeal.

History: En. Sec. 294, Pol. C. 1895; re-en. Sec. 121, Rev. C. 1907; re-en. Sec. 95, R.C.M. 1921; Cal. Pol. C. Sec. 326; re-en. Sec. 95, R.C.M. 1935; R.C.M. 1947, 43-512.

1-2-111. Effect of code on special, local, and private statutes. Nothing in this code affects any of the provisions of any special, local, or private statutes; but such statutes are recognized as continuing in force notwithstanding the provisions of this code, except so far as they have been repealed or affected by subsequent laws.

History: En. Sec. 18, Pol. C. 1895; re-en. Sec. 18, Rev. C. 1907; re-en. Sec. 18, R.C.M. 1921; Cal. Pol. C. Sec. 19; re-en. Sec. 18, R.C.M. 1935; R.C.M. 1947, 12-209.

1-2-112. Statutes imposing new local government duties. (1) Any law enacted by the legislature after July 1, 1979, which requires a local government unit to perform an activity or provide a service or facility which will require the direct expenditure of additional funds must provide a specific means to finance the activity, service, or facility other than the existing authorized mill levies or the all-purpose mill levy. Any law that fails to provide a specific means to finance any service or facility other than the existing authorized mill levies or the all-purpose mill levy is not effective until specific means of financing are provided by the legislature.

(2) The legislature may fulfill the requirements of this section by providing for an increase in the existing authorized mill levies or the all-purpose mill levy, special mill levies, or remission of money by the state of Montana to local governments; however, an increase in the existing authorized mill levies or the all-purpose mill levy or any special mill levy must provide an amount necessary to finance the additional costs and if financing is provided by remission of funds by the state of Montana, the remission shall bear a reasonable relationship to the actual cost of performing the activity or providing the service or facility.

(3) No subsequent legislation shall be considered to supersede or modify any provision of this section, whether by implication or otherwise, except to the extent that such legislation shall do so expressly.

(4) This section shall not apply to any law under which the required expenditure of additional local funds is incidental to the main purpose of the law.

History: En. 43-517, 43-518 by Secs. 1, 2, Ch. 275, L. 1974; R.C.M. 1947, 43-517, 43-518; amd. Sec. 1, Ch. 217, L. 1979.

1-2-113. Statutes imposing new duties on a school district to provide means of financing. (1) Any law enacted by the legislature after July 1, 1981, except any law implementing a federal law or a court decision, that requires a school district to perform an activity or provide a service or facility and that will require the direct expenditure of additional funds shall provide a specific means to finance the activity, service, or facility other than the existing property tax mill levy. Any law that fails to provide a specific means to finance such a service or facility is not effective until a specific means of financing meeting the requirements of subsection (2) is provided by the legislature.

(2) Financing must be by means of a remission of money by the state for the purpose of funding the activity, service, or facility. Financing must bear a reasonable relationship to the actual cost of performing the activity or providing the service or facility.

(3) No legislation passed and approved after October 1, 1981, supersedes or modifies any provision of this section, except to the extent that the legislation expressly does so.

(4) This section does not apply to any law under which the required expenditure of additional funds by the board of trustees is an insubstantial amount that can be readily absorbed into the budget of an existing program.

History: En. Sec. 1, Ch. 596, L. 1981.

Compiler's Comments

1981 Title: The title to HB 367 (Ch. 596, L. 1981) read: "An act to insure that statutes that impose new duties on school districts provide a specific means of financing."

1-2-203. Effect of amendment of statute. Where a section or a part of a statute is amended, it is not to be considered as having been repealed and reenacted in the amended form, but the portions which are not altered are to be considered as having been the law from the time when they were enacted, and the new provisions are to be considered as having been enacted at the time of the amendment.

Part 1

General Provisions

1-4-101. Role of the judge — preference to construction giving each provision meaning. In the construction of an instrument, the office of the judge is simply to ascertain and declare what is in terms or in substance contained therein, not to insert what has been omitted or to omit what has been inserted. Where there are several provisions or particulars, such a construction is, if possible, to be adopted as will give effect to all.

History: En. Sec. 612, p. 198, L. 1877; re-en. Sec. 612, 1st Div. Rev. Stat. 1879; re-en. Sec. 630, 1st Div. Comp. Stat. 1887; re-en. Sec. 3134, C. Civ. Proc. 1895; re-en. Sec. 7875, Rev. C. 1907; re-en. Sec. 10519, R.C.M. 1921; Cal. C. Civ. Proc. Sec. 1858; re-en. Sec. 10519, R.C.M. 1935; R.C.M. 1947, 93-401-15(part).

1-4-102. Consideration of circumstances surrounding execution. For the proper construction of an instrument, the circumstances under which it was made, including the situation of the subject of the instrument and of the parties to it, may also be shown so that the judge be placed in the position of those whose language he is to interpret.

History: En. Sec. 614, p. 199, L. 1877; re-en. Sec. 614, 1st Div. Rev. Stat. 1879; re-en. Sec. 632, 1st Div. Comp. Stat. 1887; re-en. Sec. 3136, C. Civ. Proc. 1895; re-en. Sec. 7877, Rev. C. 1907; re-en. Sec. 10521, R.C.M. 1921; Cal. C. Civ. Proc. Sec. 1860; re-en. Sec. 10521, R.C.M. 1935; R.C.M. 1947, 93-401-17.

1-4-103. Intention of the parties — particular and general provisions. In the construction of an instrument, the intention of the parties is to be pursued if possible. When a general and particular provision are inconsistent, the latter is paramount to the former so a particular intent will control a general one that is inconsistent with it.

History: En. Sec. 613, p. 198, L. 1877; re-en. Sec. 613, 1st Div. Rev. Stat. 1879; re-en. Sec. 631, 1st Div. Comp. Stat. 1887; re-en. Sec. 3135, C. Civ. Proc. 1895; re-en. Sec. 7876, Rev. C. 1907; re-en. Sec. 10520, R.C.M. 1921; Cal. C. Civ. Proc. Sec. 1859; re-en. Sec. 10520, R.C.M. 1935; R.C.M. 1947, 93-401-16(part).

1-4-104. Preference to construction favoring natural right. When an instrument is equally susceptible of two interpretations, one in favor of natural right and the other against it, the former is to be adopted.

History: En. Sec. 620, p. 200, L. 1877; re-en. Sec. 620, 1st Div. Rev. Stat. 1879; re-en. Sec. 638, 1st Div. Comp. Stat. 1887; re-en. Sec. 3142, C. Civ. Proc. 1895; re-en. Sec. 7883, Rev. C. 1907; re-en. Sec. 10527, R.C.M. 1921; Cal. C. Civ. Proc. Sec. 1866; re-en. Sec. 10527, R.C.M. 1935; R.C.M. 1947, 93-401-23(part).

1-4-105. Written words versus words in printed form. When an instrument consists partly of written words and partly of a printed form and the two are inconsistent, the former control the latter.

History: En. Sec. 616, p. 199, L. 1877; re-en. Sec. 616, 1st Div. Rev. Stat. 1879; re-en. Sec. 634, 1st Div. Comp. Stat. 1887; re-en. Sec. 3138, C. Civ. Proc. 1895; re-en. Sec. 7879, Rev. C. 1907; re-en. Sec. 10523, R.C.M. 1921; Cal. C. Civ. Proc. Sec. 1862; re-en. Sec. 10523, R.C.M. 1935; R.C.M. 1947, 93-401-19.

1-4-106. Interpretation of language according to usage in place of execution. The language of a writing is to be interpreted according to the meaning it bears in the place of its execution unless the parties have reference to a different place.

History: En. Sec. 611, p. 198, L. 1877; re-en. Sec. 611, 1st Div. Rev. Stat. 1879; re-en. Sec. 629, 1st Div. Comp. Stat. 1887; re-en. Sec. 3133, C. Civ. Proc. 1895; re-en. Sec. 7874, Rev. C. 1907; re-en. Sec. 10518, R.C.M. 1921; Cal. C. Civ. Proc. Sec. 1857; re-en. Sec. 10518, R.C.M. 1935; R.C.M. 1947, 93-401-14.

1-4-107. Construction of terms. The terms of a writing are presumed to have been used in their primary and general acceptation, but evidence is nevertheless admissible that they have a local, technical, or otherwise peculiar signification and were so used and understood in the particular instance, in which case the agreement must be construed accordingly.

1-4-108. Construction of the terms of a notice. A written notice, as well as every other writing, is to be construed according to the ordinary acceptation of its terms. Thus, a notice to the drawers or endorsers of a draft or promissory note that it has been protested for want of acceptance or payment must be held to import that any necessary presentment for acceptance or payment has been made, that the instrument has been dishonored, and that the holder looks for payment to the person to whom the notice is given.

1-4-202. Manner of making a seal. This code recognizes distinctions between legislators, other officers and employees of state government, and officers and employees of local government and prescribes some standards of conduct common to all categories and some standards of conduct adapted to each category. The provisions of this part recognize that some actions are conflicts per se between public duty and private interest while other actions may or may not pose such conflicts depending upon the surrounding circumstances.

History: En. 59-1701 by Sec. 1, Ch. 569, L. 1977; R.C.M. 1947, 59-1701.

(1) The holding of public office or employment is a public trust, created by the confidence which the electorate reposes in the integrity of public officers, legislators, and employees. A public officer, legislator, or employee shall carry out his duties for the benefit of the people of the state.

(2) A public officer, legislator, or employee whose conduct departs from his fiduciary duty is liable to the people of the state as a trustee of property, is liable to a beneficiary under 72-20-203(2), and shall suffer such other liabilities as a private fiduciary would suffer for abuse of his trust. The county attorney of the county where the trust is violated may bring appropriate judicial proceedings on behalf of the people. Any moneys collected in such actions shall be paid to the general fund of the aggrieved agency.

(3) The following sections set forth various rules of conduct, the transgression of any of which is, as such, a violation of fiduciary duty, and various ethical principles, the transgression of any of which is not, as such, a violation of fiduciary duty.

(a) disclose or use confidential information acquired in the course of his official duties in order to further substantially his personal economic interests; or

(i) which would tend improperly to influence a reasonable person in his position to depart from the faithful and impartial discharge of his public duties; or

(2) An economic benefit tantamount to a gift includes without limitation a loan at a rate of interest substantially lower than the commercial rate then currently prevalent for similar loans and compensation received for private services rendered at a rate substantially exceeding the fair market value of such services. (2) A public officer or employee should not acquire an interest in any business or undertaking which he has reason to believe may be directly and substantially affected to its economic benefit by official action to be taken by his agency.

(3) A public officer or employee should not, within the months following the voluntary termination of his office or employment, obtain employment in which he will take direct advantage, unavailable to others, of matters with which he was directly involved during his term or employment. These matters are rules, other than rules of general application, which he actively helped to formulate and applications, claims, or contested cases in the consideration of which he was an active participant.

(4) A public officer or employee should not perform an official act directly and substantially affecting a business or other undertaking to its economic detriment when he has a substantial financial interest in a competing firm or undertaking.

(2) When a legislator must take official action on a legislative matter as to which he has a conflict created by a personal or financial interest which would be directly and substantially affected by the legislative matter, he should consider disclosing or eliminating the interest creating the conflict or abstaining from the official action. In making his decision, he should further consider:

(a) whether the conflict impedes his independence of judgment;

(b) the effect of his participation on public confidence in the integrity of the legislature; and

(c) whether his participation is likely to have any significant effect on the disposition of the matter.

(c) rules relating to the use of public works, facilities, streets, and highways when the substance of such rules is indicated to the public by means of signs or signals;

(d) seasonal rules adopted annually relating to hunting, fishing, and trapping when there is a statutory requirement for the publication of such rules and rules adopted annually relating to the seasonal recreational use of lands and waters owned or controlled by the state when the substance of such rules is indicated to the public by means of signs or signals;

(e) rules implementing the state personnel classification plan, the state wage and salary plan, or the statewide budgeting and accounting system;

(f) uniform rules adopted pursuant to interstate compact, except that such rules shall be filed in accordance with 2-4-306 and shall be published in the administrative rules of Montana.

(11) "Substantive rules" are either:

(a) legislative rules, which if adopted in accordance with this chapter and under expressly delegated authority to promulgate rules to implement a statute have the force of law and when not so adopted are invalid; or

(b) adjective or interpretive rules, which may be adopted in accordance with this chapter and under express or implied authority to codify an interpretation of a statute. Such interpretation lacks the force of law.

2-4-103. Rules and statements to be made available to public. (1) Each agency shall:

(a) make available for public inspection all rules and all other written statements of policy or interpretations formulated, adopted, or used by the agency in the discharge of its functions;

(b) upon request of any person, provide a copy of any rule.

(2) Unless otherwise provided by statute, an agency may require the payment of the cost of providing such copies.

(3) No agency rule is valid or effective against any person or party whose rights have been substantially prejudiced by an agency's failure to comply with the public inspection requirement herein.

History: En. Sec. 3, Ch. 2, Ex. L. 1971; amd. Sec. 1, Ch. 240, L. 1974; amd. Sec. 3, Ch. 285, L. 1977; R.C.M. 1947, 82-4203(1)(c), (1)(d), (2); amd. Sec. 3, Ch. 243, L. 1979.

2-4-104. Subpoenas and enforcement — compelling testimony. (1) An agency conducting any proceeding subject to this chapter shall have the power to require the furnishing of such information, the attendance of such witnesses, and the production of such books, records, papers, documents, and other objects as may be necessary and proper for the purposes of the proceeding. In furtherance of this power, an agency upon its own motion may and, upon request of any party appearing in a contested case, shall issue subpoenas for witnesses or subpoenas duces tecum. The method for service of subpoenas, witness fees, and mileage shall be the same as required in civil actions in the district courts of the state. Except as otherwise provided by statute, witness fees and mileage shall be paid by the party at whose request the subpoena was issued.

(2) In case of disobedience of any subpoena issued and served under this section or of the refusal of any witness to testify as to any material matter with regard to which he may be interrogated in a proceeding before the agency, the agency may apply to any district court in the state for an order to compel compliance with the subpoena or the giving of testimony. If the agency fails or refuses to seek enforcement of a subpoena issued at the request of a party or to compel the giving of testimony considered material by a party, the party may make such application. The court shall hear the matter as expeditiously as possible. If the disobedience or refusal is found to be unjustified, the court shall enter an order requiring compliance. Disobedience of such order shall be punishable by contempt of court in the same manner and by the same procedures as is provided for like conduct committed in the course of civil actions in district courts. If another method of subpoena enforcement or compelling testimony is provided by statute, it may be used as an alternative to the method provided for in this section.

2-4-105. Representation by counsel. Any person compelled to appear in person or who voluntarily appears before any agency or representative thereof shall be accorded the right to be accompanied, represented, and advised by counsel. In a proceeding before an agency, every party shall be accorded the right to appear in person or by or with counsel but this chapter shall not be construed as requiring an agency to furnish counsel to any such person.

History: En. Sec. 21, Ch. 2, Ex. L. 1971; amd. Sec. 20, Ch. 285, L. 1977; R.C.M. 1947, 82-4221.

2-4-106. Service. Except where a statute expressly provides to the contrary, service in all agency proceedings subject to the provisions of this chapter and in proceedings for judicial review thereof shall be as prescribed for civil actions in the district courts.

History: En. Sec. 22, Ch. 2, Ex. L. 1971; amd. Sec. 21, Ch. 285, L. 1977; R.C.M. 1947, 82-4222.

2-4-107. Construction and effect. Nothing in this chapter shall be considered to limit or repeal requirements imposed by statute or otherwise recognized law. No subsequent legislation shall be considered to supersede or modify any provision of this chapter, whether by implication or otherwise, except to the extent that such legislation shall do so expressly.

History: En. Sec. 23, Ch. 2, Ex. L. 1971; amd. Sec. 22, Ch. 285, L. 1977; R.C.M. 1947, 82-4223.

Part 2

Organizational and Procedural Rules

2-4-201. Rules describing agency organization and procedures. In addition to other rulemaking requirements imposed by law, each agency shall:

(1) adopt as a rule a description of its organization, stating the general course and method of its operations and the methods whereby the public may obtain information or make submissions or requests. The notice and hearing requirements contained in 2-4-302 do not apply to adoption of a rule relating to a description of its organization.

(2) adopt rules of practice, not inconsistent with statutory provisions, setting forth the nature and requirements of all formal and informal procedures available, including a description of all forms and instructions used by the agency.

History: En. Sec. 3, Ch. 2, Ex. L. 1971; amd. Sec. 1, Ch. 240, L. 1974; amd. Sec. 3, Ch. 285, L. 1977; R.C.M. 1947, 82-4203(1)(a), (1)(b).

2-4-202. Model rules. (1) The attorney general shall prepare a model form for a rule describing the organization of agencies and model rules of practice for agencies to use as a guide in fulfilling the requirements of 2-4-201. The attorney general shall add to, amend, or revise the model rules from time to time as he considers necessary for the proper guidance of agencies.

(2) The model rules and additions, amendments, or revisions thereto shall be appropriate for the use of as many agencies as is practicable and shall be filed with the secretary of state and provided to any agency upon request. The adoption by an agency of all or part of the model rules does not relieve the agency from following the rulemaking procedures required by this chapter.

History: En. Sec. 3, Ch. 2, Ex. L. 1971; amd. Sec. 1, Ch. 240, L. 1974; amd. Sec. 3, Ch. 285, L. 1977; R.C.M. 1947, 82-4203(3).

Part 3

Adoption and Publication of Rules

2-4-301. Authority to adopt not conferred. Except as provided in part 2, nothing in this chapter confers authority upon or augments the authority of any state agency to adopt, administer, or enforce any rule.

History: En. 82-4204.1 by Sec. 9, Ch. 285, L. 1977; R.C.M. 1947, 82-4204.1(part).

2-4-302. Notice, hearing, and submission of views. (1) Prior to the adoption, amendment, or repeal of any rule, the agency shall give written notice of its intended action. The notice shall include a statement of either the terms or substance of the intended action or a description of the subjects and issues involved, the rationale for the intended action, and the time when, place where, and manner in which interested persons may present their views thereon.

(2) The notice shall be filed with the secretary of state for publication in the register as provided in 2-4-312 and mailed within 3 days of publication to persons who have made timely requests to the agency for notice of its rulemaking proceedings. The notice shall be published and mailed at least 30 days in advance of the agency's intended action.

(3) If any statute provides for a different method of publication, the affected agency shall comply with the statute in addition to the requirements contained herein. However, in no case may the notice period be less than 30 days or more than 6 months.

(4) Prior to the adoption, amendment, or repeal of any rule, the agency shall afford interested persons at least 20 days' notice of a hearing and 28 days from the day of notice to submit data, views, or arguments, orally or in writing. In the case of substantive rules, the notice of proposed rulemaking must state that opportunity for oral hearing shall be granted if requested by either 10% or 25, whichever is less, of the persons who will be directly affected by the proposed rule, by a governmental subdivision or agency, by the administrative code committee, or by an association having not less than 25 members who will be directly affected.

(5) An agency may continue a hearing date for cause. In the discretion of the agency, contested case procedures need not be followed in hearings held pursuant to this section. If a hearing is otherwise required by statute, nothing herein alters that requirement.

(6) If an agency fails to publish a notice of adoption within the time required by 2-4-305(7) and the agency again proposes the same rule for adoption, amendment, or repeal, the proposal must be considered a new proposal for purposes of compliance with this chapter.

(7) At the commencement of any hearing on the intended action, the person designated by the agency to preside at the hearing shall read aloud the "Notice of Function of Administrative Code Committee" appearing in the register.

Compiler's Comments

1981 Amendment: Inserted "within 3 days of publication" after "mailed" in (2); deleted a reference to advance notice in (2); inserted "the notice of proposed rulemaking must state that" after "substantive rules" near the middle of (4); inserted "by the administrative code committee" after "subdivision or agency" near the end of (4); inserted "In the discretion of the agency, contested" at the beginning of the second sentence of (5); added subsections (6) and (7).

Severability: Section 8, Ch. 381, L. 1981, was a severability section.

2-4-303. Emergency rules. (1) If an agency finds that an imminent peril to the public health, safety, or welfare requires adoption of a rule upon fewer than 30 days' notice and states in writing its reasons for that finding, it may proceed, without prior notice or hearing or upon any abbreviated notice and hearing that it finds practicable, to adopt an emergency rule. The rule may be effective for a period not longer than 120 days, but the adoption of an identical rule under 2-4-302 is not precluded.

(2) The sufficiency of the reasons for a finding of imminent peril to the public health, safety, or welfare is subject to judicial review.

History: En. Sec. 4, Ch. 2, Ex. L. 1971; amd. Sec. 5, Ch. 410, L. 1975; amd. Sec. 1, Ch. 482, L. 1975; amd. Sec. 8, Ch. 285, L. 1977; R.C.M. 1947, 82-4204(2); amd. Sec. 5, Ch. 243, L. 1979.

2-4-304. Informal conferences and committees. (1) An agency may use informal conferences and consultations as a means of obtaining the viewpoints and advice of interested persons with respect to contemplated rulemaking.

(2) An agency may also appoint committees of experts or interested persons or representatives of the general public to advise it with respect to any contemplated rulemaking. The powers of the committees shall be advisory only.

(3) Nothing herein shall relieve the agency from following rulemaking procedures required by this chapter.

History: En. Sec. 4, Ch. 2, Ex. L. 1971; amd. Sec. 5, Ch. 410, L. 1975; amd. Sec. 1, Ch. 482, L. 1975; amd. Sec. 8, Ch. 285, L. 1977; R.C.M. 1947, 82-4204(4).

2-4-305. Requisites for validity — authority and statement of reasons. (1) The agency shall consider fully written and oral submissions respecting the proposed rule. Upon adoption of a rule, an agency shall issue a concise statement of the principal reasons for and against its adoption, incorporating therein its reasons for overruling the considerations urged against its adoption. If substantial differences exist between the rule as proposed and as adopted and the differences have not been described or set forth in the adopted rule as that rule is printed in the Montana administrative register, the differences must be described in the statement of reasons for and against agency action. When no written or oral submissions have been received, an agency may omit the statement of reasons.

(2) Rules may not unnecessarily repeat statutory language. Whenever it is necessary to refer to statutory language in order to convey the meaning of a rule interpreting the language, the reference shall clearly indicate that portion of the language which is statutory and the portion which is amplification of the language.

(3) Each proposed and adopted rule shall include a citation to the specific grant of rulemaking authority pursuant to which it or any part thereof is adopted. In addition, each proposed and adopted rule shall include a citation to the specific section or sections in the Montana Code Annotated which the rule purports to implement.

(4) Each rule proposed and adopted by an agency implementing a policy of a governing board or commission must include a citation to and description of the policy implemented. Each agency rule implementing a policy, as used in the definition set forth in 2-4-102(10), and the policy itself must be based on legal authority and otherwise comply with the requisites for validity of rules established by this chapter.

(5) To be effective, each substantive rule adopted must be within the scope of authority conferred and in accordance with standards prescribed by other provisions of law.

(6) Whenever by the express or implied terms of any statute a state agency has authority to adopt rules to implement, interpret, make specific, or otherwise carry out the provisions of the statute, no rule adopted is valid or effective unless consistent and not in conflict with the statute and reasonably necessary to effectuate the purpose of the statute.

(7) No rule is valid unless adopted in substantial compliance with 2-4-302 or 2-4-303 and this section and unless notice of adoption thereof is published within 6 months of the publishing of notice of the proposed rule. If an amended or supplemental notice of either proposed or final rulemaking, or both, is published concerning the same rule, the 6-month limit must be determined with reference to the latest notice in all cases.

Sec. 6, Ch. 243, L. 1979; amd. Sec. 2, Ch. 381, L. 1981.

Compiler's Comments

1981 Amendment: Inserted the provision relating to substantial differences between the proposed and adopted rule, which must be described in an agency's statement of reasons, in (1); inserted "proposed and adopted" before "rule" in two places in (3); added subsection (4); added the last sentence concerning the 6-month limit as to notice to (7).

Severability: Section 8, Ch. 381, L. 1981, was a severability section.

2-4-306. Filing, format, and effective date — dissemination of emergency rules. (1) Each agency shall file with the secretary of state a copy of each rule adopted by it.

(2) The secretary of state may prescribe a format, style, and arrangement for notices and rules which are filed pursuant to this chapter and may refuse to accept the filing of any notice or rule that is not in compliance therewith. He shall keep and maintain a permanent register of all notices and rules filed, including superseded and repealed rules, which shall be open to public inspection and shall provide copies of any notice or rule upon request of any person. Unless otherwise provided by statute, the secretary of state may require the payment of the cost of providing such copies.

(3) In the event that the administrative code committee has conducted a poll of the legislature in accordance with 2-4-403 or the revenue oversight committee has conducted a poll in accordance with 5-18-109, the results of the poll shall be published with the rule.

(4) Each rule shall become effective after publication in the register as provided in 2-4-312, except that:

(a) if a later date is required by statute or specified in the rule, the later date shall be the effective date;

(b) subject to applicable constitutional or statutory provisions, an emergency rule shall become effective immediately upon filing with the secretary of state or at a stated date following publication in the register if the agency finds that this effective date is necessary because of imminent peril to the public health, safety, or welfare. The agency's finding and a brief statement of reasons therefor shall be filed with the rule. The agency shall take appropriate measures to make emergency rules known to every person who may be affected by them.

History: En. Sec. 5, Ch. 2, Ex. L. 1971; amd. Sec. 10, Ch. 285, L. 1977; amd. Sec. 2, Ch. 561, L. 1977; R.C.M. 1947, 82-4205(part); amd. Sec. 7, Ch. 243, L. 1979; amd. Sec. 12, Ch. 268, L. 1979.

2-4-307. Omissions from ARM or register. (1) An agency may adopt by reference any model code, federal agency rule, rule of any agency of this state or other similar publication if the publication of the model code, rule, or other publication would be unduly cumbersome, expensive, or otherwise inexpedient.

(2) The model code, rule, or other publication must be adopted by reference in a rule adopted under the rulemaking procedure required by this chapter. The rule must contain a citation to the material adopted by reference and a statement of the general subject matter of the omitted rule and must state where a copy of the omitted material may be obtained. Upon request of the secretary of state, a copy of the omitted material must be filed with the secretary of state.

(3) No rule originally adopting by reference any model code or rule provided for in subsection (1) of this section may adopt any later amendments or editions of the material adopted. Except as provided in subsection (5), each later amendment or edition may be adopted by reference only by following the rulemaking procedure required by this chapter.

(4) If requested by a three-fourths vote of the administrative code committee, an agency must immediately publish the full or partial text of any pertinent material adopted by reference under this section. The committee may not require the publication of copyrighted material. Publication of the text of a rule previously adopted does not affect the date of adoption of the rule, but publication of the text of a rule before publication of the notice of final adoption must be in the form of and is considered to be a new notice of proposed rulemaking.

(5) Whenever later amendments of federal regulations must be adopted to comply with federal law or to qualify for federal funding, only a notice of incorporation by reference of such later amendments shall be filed in the Montana Administrative Register. This notice shall contain the information required by subsection (2) of this section and shall state the effective date of such incorporation. The effective date may be no sooner than 30 days after the date upon which the notice is published unless the 30 days causes a delay that jeopardizes compliance with federal law or qualification for federal funding in which event the effective date may be no sooner than the date of publication. A hearing is not required unless requested under 2-4-315 by either 10% or 25, whichever is less, of the persons who will be directly affected by the incorporation, by a governmental subdivision or agency, or by an association having not less than 25 members who will be directly affected. No further notice of adoption or preparation of a replacement page for the administrative rules of Montana is required.

(6) If a hearing is requested under subsection (5), the petition for hearing shall contain a request for an amendment and may contain suggested language, reasons for an amendment, and any other information pertinent to the subject of the rule.

History: En. Sec. 6, Ch. 2, Ex. L. 1971; amd. Sec. 11, Ch. 285, L. 1977; R.C.M. 1947, 82-4206(3); amd. Sec. 8, Ch. 243, L. 1979; amd. Sec. 1, Ch. 591, L. 1981.

Compiler's Comments

1981 Amendment: Added subsections (3) through (6); divided former section into subsections (1) and (2) with substantial amendment; deleted need for the secretary of state to initiate omissions; deleted need for filing all omitted material with the secretary of state; rewrote both subsections to reflect incorporation by reference rather than omission of material incorporated by reference (for prior version see sec. 8, Ch. 243, L. 1979).

2-4-308 through 2-4-310 reserved.

2-4-311. Publication and arrangement of ARM. (1) The secretary of state shall compile, index, arrange, rearrange, correct errors or inconsistencies without changing the meaning, intent, or effect of any rule, and publish all rules filed pursuant to this chapter in ARM. The secretary of state shall supplement, revise, and publish ARM or any part thereof as often as he considers necessary. He may include such editorial notes, cross-references, and other matter as he and the administrative code committee consider desirable or advantageous. He shall publish supplements to ARM at such times and in such form as he considers appropriate.

(2) ARM shall be arranged, indexed, and printed or duplicated in such manner as to permit separate publication of portions thereof relating to individual agencies. An agency may make arrangements with the secretary of state for the printing of as many copies of such separate publications as it may require. The cost of any such separate publications, determined in accordance with 2-4-313(4), shall be paid by the agency.

History: En. Sec. 6, Ch. 2, Ex. L. 1971; amd. Sec. 11, Ch. 285, L. 1977; R.C.M. 1947, 82-4206(part); amd. Sec. 9, Ch. 243, L. 1979.

2-4-312. Publication and arrangement of register. (1) The secretary of state shall publish in the register all notices, rules, and interpretations filed with him at least once a month or as directed by the administrative code committee but not more often than twice a month.

(2) He shall send the register without charge to each person listed in 2-4-313(1) and to each member of the legislature requesting the same. The cost, determined in accordance with 2-4-313(4), must be paid by appropriation from the general fund to the account within the revolving fund created in 2-4-313(5). He shall send the register to any other person who pays a subscription fee which he shall fix in accordance with 2-4-313(4).

(3) The register must contain three sections, a rules section, a notice section, and an interpretation section:

(a) The rules section of the register must contain all rules filed since the compilation and publication of the preceding issue of the register, together with the concise statement of reasons required under 2-4-305(1).

(b) The notice section of the register must contain all rulemaking notices filed with the secretary of state pursuant to 2-4-302 since the compilation and publication of the preceding register.

(c) The interpretation section of the register must contain all opinions of the attorney general and all declaratory rulings of agencies issued since the publication of the preceding register.

(4) Each issue of the register must contain the issue number and date of the register and a table of contents. Each page of the register must contain the issue number and date of the register of which it is a part. The secretary of state may include with the register information to help the user in relating the register to ARM.

Such persons shall also maintain the register issues published during the preceding 2 years. The secretary of state shall also maintain a permanent set of the registers.

(3) The secretary of state shall make copies of and subscriptions to ARM and supplements or revisions thereto and the register available to any person at prices fixed in accordance with subsection (4).

(4) The secretary of state, in consultation with the administrative code committee, shall determine the cost of supplying copies of ARM and supplements or revisions thereto and the register. The cost shall be the approximate cost of publication, including indexing, printing or duplicating, and mailing, less fees charged agencies pursuant to subsection (6) and money appropriated for 2-4-312(2) and 2-4-313(1). However, a uniform price per page or group of pages may be established without regard to differences in cost of printing different parts of ARM and supplements or revisions thereto and the register.

(5) The secretary of state shall deposit all fees he collects in an account within the revolving fund created for paying the expenses of publication of ARM and the register.

(6) The secretary of state may charge agencies a filing fee for all material to be published in ARM or the register. He shall fix, in consultation with the administrative code committee, the fee to cover a portion of the costs of publication and mailing.

2-4-631. Licenses. (1) When the grant, denial, renewal, revocation, suspension, annulment, withdrawal, limitation, transfer, or amendment of a license is required by law to be preceded by notice and opportunity for hearing, the provisions of this chapter concerning contested cases apply.

(2) When a licensee has made timely and sufficient application for the renewal of a license or a new license with reference to any activity of a continuing nature, the existing license does not expire until the application has been finally determined by the agency and, in case the application is denied or the terms of the new license limited, until the last day for seeking review of the agency order or a later date fixed by order of the reviewing court.

(3) Whenever notice is required, no revocation, suspension, annulment, withdrawal, or amendment of any license is lawful unless the agency gave notice by mail to the licensee of facts or conduct which warrant the intended action. If the agency finds that public health, safety, or welfare imperatively requires emergency action and incorporates a finding to that effect in its order, summary suspension of a license may be ordered pending proceedings for revocation or other action. These proceedings shall be promptly instituted and determined.

Part 7

Judicial Review of Contested Cases

2-4-701. Immediate review of agency action. A preliminary, procedural, or intermediate agency action or ruling is immediately reviewable if review of the final agency decision would not provide an adequate remedy.

History: En. Sec. 16, Ch. 2, Ex. L. 1971; amd. Sec. 17, Ch. 285, L. 1977; R.C.M. 1947, 82-4216(part).

2-4-702. Initiating judicial review of contested cases. (1) (a) A person who has exhausted all administrative remedies available within the agency and who is aggrieved by a final decision in a contested case is entitled to judicial review under this chapter. This section does not limit utilization of or the scope of judicial review available under other means of review, redress, relief, or trial de novo provided by statute.

(b) A party who proceeds before an agency under the terms of a particular statute shall not be precluded from questioning the validity of that statute on judicial review, but such party may not raise any other question not raised before the agency unless it is shown to the satisfaction of the court that there was good cause for failure to raise the question before the agency.

(2) (a) Proceedings for review shall be instituted by filing a petition in district court within 30 days after service of the final decision of the agency or, if a rehearing is requested, within 30 days after the decision thereon. Except as otherwise provided by statute, the petition shall be filed in the district court for the county where the petitioner resides or has his principal place of business or where the agency maintains its principal office. Copies of the petition shall be promptly served upon the agency and all parties of record.

(b) The petition shall include a concise statement of the facts upon which jurisdiction and venue are based, a statement of the manner in which the petitioner is aggrieved, and the ground or grounds specified in 2-4-704(2) upon which the petitioner contends he is entitled to relief. The petition shall demand the relief to which the petitioner believes he is entitled, and the demand for relief may be in the alternative.

(3) Unless otherwise provided by statute, the filing of the petition shall not stay enforcement of the agency's decision. The agency may grant or the reviewing court may order a stay upon terms which it considers proper.

(4) Within 30 days after the service of the petition or within further time allowed by the court, the agency shall transmit to the reviewing court the original or a certified copy of the entire record of the proceeding under review. By stipulation of all parties to the review proceedings, the record may be shortened. A party unreasonably refusing to stipulate to limit the record may be taxed by the court for the additional costs. The court may require or permit subsequent corrections or additions to the record.

History: En. Sec. 16, Ch. 2, Ex. L. 1971; amd. Sec. 17, Ch. 285, L. 1977; R.C.M. 1947, 82-4216(part).

2-4-703. Receipt of additional evidence. If, before the date set for hearing, application is made to the court for leave to present additional evidence and it is shown to the satisfaction of the court that the additional evidence is material and that there were good reasons for failure to present it in the proceeding before the agency, the court may order that the additional evidence be taken before the agency upon conditions determined by the court. The agency may modify its findings and decision by reason of the additional evidence and shall file that evidence and any modifications, new findings, or decisions with the reviewing court.

History: En. Sec. 16, Ch. 2, Ex. L. 1971; amd. Sec. 17, Ch. 285, L. 1977; R.C.M. 1947, 82-4216(5).

2-4-704. Standards of review. (1) The review shall be conducted by the court without a jury and shall be confined to the record. In cases of alleged irregularities in procedure before the agency not shown in the record, proof thereof may be taken in the court. The court, upon request, shall hear oral argument and receive written briefs.

(2) The court may not substitute its judgment for that of the agency as to the weight of the evidence on questions of fact. The court may affirm the decision of the agency or remand the case for further proceedings. The court may reverse or modify the decision if substantial rights of the appellant have been prejudiced because the administrative findings, inferences, conclusions, or decisions are:

(a) in violation of constitutional or statutory provisions;

(b) in excess of the statutory authority of the agency;

(c) made upon unlawful procedure;

(d) affected by other error of law;

(e) clearly erroneous in view of the reliable, probative, and substantial evidence on the whole record;

(f) arbitrary or capricious or characterized by abuse of discretion or clearly unwarranted exercise of discretion; or

(g) because findings of fact, upon issues essential to the decision, were not made although requested.

History: En. Sec. 16, Ch. 2, Ex. L. 1971; amd. Sec. 17, Ch. 285, L. 1977; R.C.M. 1947, 82-4216(6), (7).

2-4-705 through 2-4-710 reserved.

2-4-711. Appeals — staying agency decision. An aggrieved party may obtain review of a final judgment of a district court under this part by appeal to the supreme court within 60 days after entry of judgment. Such appeal shall be taken in the manner provided by law for appeals from district courts in civil cases. Unless otherwise provided by statute or unless the agency has granted a stay through the completion of the judicial review process:

(1) if appeal is taken from a judgment of the district court affirming an agency decision, the agency decision shall not be stayed except upon order of the supreme court; except that, in cases where a stay is in effect at the time of the filing of notice of appeal, the stay shall be continued by operation of law for 20 days from the date of filing of the notice;

(2) if appeal is taken from a judgment of the district court reversing or modifying an agency decision, the agency decision shall be stayed pending final determination of the appeal unless the supreme court orders otherwise.

History: En. Sec. 17, Ch. 2, Ex. L. 1971; amd. Sec. 18, Ch. 285, L. 1977; R.C.M. 1947, 82-4217.

Part 1

Periodic Agency Evaluation

2-8-101. Purpose. (1) The legislature finds state government actions have produced a substantial increase in numbers of agencies, growth of programs, and proliferation of rules. The legislature questions whether conditions causing the establishment of these agencies, programs, and rules have not changed to such an extent as to remove the need for some or all of the agencies, programs, and rules.

(2) It is the intent of the legislature, by establishing a system of periodic evaluation of the need for and the performance of agencies preparatory to termination, modification, or reestablishment, to be in a better position to ensure as follows:

(a) The executive department is responsive to the needs of all of the people of the state.

(b) No agency, program, or rule exists which is not responsive to those needs.

(c) No profession, occupation, business, industry, or other endeavor is subject to the state's regulatory power unless the exercise of such power is necessary to protect the public health, safety, or welfare from significant and discernible harm or damage. The exercise of the state's police power shall be done only to the extent necessary for that purpose.

(d) The state may not regulate a profession, occupation, industry, business, or other endeavor in a manner which will unreasonably adversely affect the competitive market.

(e) There exists a systematic legislative review of the need for and public benefits derived from a program or function which licenses or otherwise regulates a profession, occupation, business, industry, or other endeavor by a periodic review and termination, modification, or reestablishment of such programs and functions.

(2) "Performance audit" means an examination of the effectiveness of administration and its efficiency and adequacy in terms of the program of a state agency authorized by law to be performed and the conformance of expenditures with legislative intent. Audits conducted shall include an analysis of the operation of the agency with special regard to the duplication of efforts between the audited agency and other agencies and the quality of service being rendered.

Any agency or program created in part to regulate any profession, occupation, business, or other endeavor by law enacted after January 1, 1977, shall terminate on July 1 of the year of the third regular biennial legislative session following enactment of such law. Any such agency or program shall be reviewed as required in 2-8-111 through 2-8-122, and such review shall be completed prior to the convening of the third regular biennial legislative session following enactment of such law.

2-8-111. Prereview agency responsibilities. An agency designated by 2-8-103 or 2-8-104 for termination shall by 22 months preceding the date set for termination:

(1) delineate goals of programs for which it is responsible, which goals reflect the state's constitution, statutes, and authoritative judicial, legislative, and executive decisions or pronouncements;

(2) delineate objectives of programs and layout clearly enough to be tested, the logic in the assumptions linking expenditures to outcome anticipated, outcome anticipated to objectives, and objectives to impact on problems addressed in goals.

History: En. 82-4605 by Sec. 5, Ch. 562, L. 1977; R.C.M. 1947, 82-4605.

2-8-112. Legislative audit committee review and report — review criteria. (1) The legislative audit committee is responsible for having conducted a review of each agency scheduled for termination by 2-8-103. The review shall be completed at least 6 months prior to the date set for termination.

(2) The review conducted shall include a performance audit of the agency and a thorough examination of the following:

(a) Would the absence of regulation significantly harm or endanger the public health, safety, or welfare?

(b) Is there a reasonable relationship between the exercise of the state's police power and the protection of the public health, safety, or welfare?

(c) Is there another less restrictive method of regulation available which could adequately protect the public?

(d) Does the regulation have the effect of directly or indirectly increasing the costs of any goods or services involved and, if so, to what degree?

(e) Is the increase in cost more harmful to the public than the harm which could result from the absence of regulation?

(f) Are all facets of the regulatory process designed solely for the purpose of and have as their primary effect the protection of the public?

(3) The legislative audit committee shall assist in the implementation of the provisions of this part and shall establish administrative procedures which facilitate the review and evaluation as required in this part.

(4) Upon completion of its review, the legislative audit committee shall make a report of its recommendations for continuation, modification, or termination and submit a proposed bill for the ensuing legislative session. If termination is recommended, the bill should repeal or otherwise deal with all statutes and parts of statutes for which the agency reviewed is responsible.

History: En. 82-4604 by Sec. 4, Ch. 562, L. 1977; R.C.M. 1947, 82-4604.

2-8-113. Hearings by standing committee — criteria for termination. (1) Prior to abolishment of an agency terminated by 2-8-103 or 2-8-104, the appropriate standing committee in each house of the legislature or a joint committee of both houses composed of members of the standing committee assigned to conduct the hearing shall hold a public hearing, receiving testimony from the public and the head of the department to which the agency involved is attached, the head of the agency involved, and persons who conducted the review.

(2) In the event termination is recommended by the legislative audit committee, the agency has the burden of demonstrating a public need for its continued existence and the extent to which a change in the composition, structure, and operation of the agency would increase the protection of the public health, safety, or welfare from harm or damage or decrease the adverse effect on the competitive market.

(3) In determining whether to reestablish an agency, the legislature shall consider the performance audit and review conducted by the legislative audit committee, the public testimony responsive to the questions set forth in subsection (2) of 2-8-112, and other matters considered relevant by the committee.

History: En. 82-4606 by Sec. 6, Ch. 562, L. 1977; R.C.M. 1947, 82-4606.

2-8-121. Effect of termination. Unless otherwise provided, upon termination, each agency or unit shall continue in existence until July 1 of the next succeeding year for the purpose of winding up its affairs. During the windup period, termination does not reduce or otherwise limit the powers or authority of each respective agency except that no action may be taken which would continue in effect beyond the 1-year windup period. Upon the expiration of the 1 year after termination, each agency not modified or reestablished shall be abolished and all unexpended balances of appropriations, allocations, or other funds shall revert to the fund from which they were appropriated or, if that fund is abolished, to the general fund.

(1) Any agency scheduled for termination under this part or any subsequent act may be reestablished by the legislature for any period of time specified by law, not to exceed 6 years, at the end of which time the legislature shall again review the agency pursuant to 2-8-112 and may again reestablish, modify, or allow the termination of the agency pursuant to this section.

2-9-511. Extent of sureties' liability — when less than full. (1) Every official bond executed by any officer pursuant to law is in force and obligatory upon the principal and sureties therein for any and all breaches of the conditions thereof committed during the time such officer continues to discharge any of the duties of or hold the office and whether such breaches are committed or suffered by the principal officer, his deputy, or clerk.

(2) Every such bond is in force and obligatory upon the principal and sureties therein for the faithful discharge of all duties which may be required of such officer by any law enacted subsequently to the execution of such bond, and such condition must be expressed therein.

(3) When the penal sum of any bond required to be given amounts to more than $1,000, the sureties may become severally liable for portions not less than $500, making in the aggregate a liability of double the amount named as the penal sum of the bond. If any such bond becomes forfeited, an action may be brought thereon against any or all of the obligors and judgment entered against them, either jointly or severally, as they may be liable. The judgment must not be entered against a surety severally bound for a greater sum than that for which he is specially liable by the terms of the bond. Each surety is liable to contribute to his cosureties in proportion to the amount for which he is liable.

2-9-512. Defects not to affect liability. (1) Whenever an official bond does not contain the substantial matter or conditions required by law or there are any defects in the approval or filing thereof, it is not void so as to discharge such officer and sureties, but they are equitably bound to the state or party interested and the state or such party may, by action in any court of competent jurisdiction, suggest the defect in the bond, approval, or filing and recover the proper and equitable demand or damages from such officer and the persons who intended to become and were included as sureties in such bond.

(2) No official bond entered into by any officer or any bond, recognizance, or written undertaking taken by any officer in the discharge of the duties of his office shall be void for want of form, substance, recital, or condition or the principal or surety be discharged. The principal and surety shall be bound by such bond, recognizance, or written undertaking to the full extent contemplated by the law requiring the same and the sureties to the amount specified in the bond or recognizance or written undertaking. In all actions on a defective bond, recognizance, or written undertaking, the plaintiff or relator may suggest the defect in his complaint and recover to the same extent as if such bond, recognizance, or written undertaking were perfect in all respects.

2-9-513. Insufficiency of sureties — action to vacate office. (1) Whenever it is shown by the affidavit of a credible witness or otherwise comes to the knowledge of the court, judge, board, person, or body whose duty it is to approve the official bond of any officer that the sureties on any bond given pursuant to the provisions of this part or any one of them have, since such bond was approved, died, removed from the state, become insolvent, or from any other cause have become incompetent or insufficient sureties on such bond, the court, judge, board, officer, or other person may issue a citation to such officer requiring him on a day therein named, not less than 5 or more than 10 days after date, to appear and show cause why such office should not be vacated, which citation must be served and return thereof made as in other cases.

(2) If the officer fails to appear and show good cause why such office should not be vacated on the day named or fails to give ample additional security, the court, judge, board, officer, or other person must make an order vacating the office. The same must be filled as approved by law.

(2) Every such additional bond so filed and approved is of like force and obligation upon the principal and sureties therein, from the time of its execution, and subjects the officer and his sureties to the same liabilities, suits, and actions as are prescribed respecting the original bonds of officers.

(3) In no case is the original bond discharged or affected when an additional bond has been given, but the same remains of like force and obligation as if such additional bond had not been given.

2-9-515. Additional security — liability of officers and sureties. The officer and his sureties are liable to any party injured by the breach of any condition of an official bond, after the execution of the additional bond, upon either or both bonds. Such party may bring his action upon either bond, or he may bring separate actions on the bonds respectively. He may allege the same cause of action and recover judgment therefor in each suit.

Upon the filing and approval of the new bond, such first sureties are exonerated from all further liability, but their bond remains in full force as to all liabilities incurred previous to the approval of such new bond. The liability of the principal and surety or sureties in such new bond is in all respects the same and may be enforced in like manner as the liability of the principal and sureties of the original bond.

The clerk of the court receiving such affidavit must certify to the county clerk in which such real estate is situated the names of the parties to the action, the name of the court in which the action is pending, and the amount claimed in the complaint, with the date of the commencement of the suit.

(2) Upon receiving such certificate, the county clerk must endorse upon it the time of its reception. Such certificate must be filed in the same manner as notices of the pendency of action affecting real estate. Any judgment recovered in such action is a lien upon all real estate belonging to the defendant situated in any county in which such certificate is so filed or to one or more of such defendants, for the amount the owner thereof is or may be liable upon the judgment, from the filing of this certificate.

(3) In any action to compel the specific performance of an agreement to sell real estate affected by the lien created by the filing of the certificate mentioned in subsection (2) which agreement was made prior to the filing of such certificate, but the purchase price thereof is not due until after the filing of said certificate, the judge of the district court in which said action for specific performance is tried must, if the purchaser is otherwise entitled to specific performance of such agreement, order the said purchaser to pay the purchase price, or so much thereof as may be due, to the state treasurer, taking his receipt therefor. Upon such payment, the purchaser is entitled to enforce the specific performance of the agreement and take said real estate free from the liens created by the filing of said certificate. The moneys so paid to the state treasurer must be held by him, pending the litigation mentioned in said certificate and subject to the lien created by the filing of said certificate. If judgment is recovered against the defendant, the state treasurer in his settlement must pay to the county treasurer entitled to the same the amount due the county.

(b) An agency or an official of the executive branch of state government other than a department head or the governor, including the superintendents of the state's institutions and the presidents of the units of the state's university system, may also create advisory councils but only if federal law or regulation requires that such official or agency create the advisory council as a condition to the receipt of federal funds.

(c) The board of public education, the board of regents of higher education, the state board of education, the attorney general, and the superintendent of public instruction may create advisory councils, which shall serve at their pleasure, without the approval of the governor. Members who are full-time salaried officers or employees of this state or of any political subdivision of this state are not entitled to be compensated for their service as members but are entitled to be reimbursed for travel expenses as provided for in 2-18-501 through 2-18-503.

(6) Unless otherwise specified by the creating authority, at its first meeting in each year each advisory council shall elect a chairman and such other officers as it considers necessary.

(7) Unless otherwise specified by the creating authority, each advisory council shall meet at least annually and shall also meet on the call of the creating authority or the governor and may meet at other times on the call of the chairman or a majority of its members. An advisory council may not meet outside the city of Helena without the express prior authorization of the creating authority.

(8) A majority of the membership of an advisory council constitutes a quorum to do business.

(9) Except as provided in subsection (1)(c) of this section, an advisory council may not be created or appointed by a department head or any other official without the approval of the governor. If the existence of an advisory council is extended, they shall specify a new date, not more than 2 years later, when the existence of the advisory council ends and file a record of the order in the office of the governor and the office of the secretary of state. The existence of any advisory council may be extended as many times as necessary.

2-15-123. Administratively created agencies — prohibition. The governor, a department head, or any other official of the executive branch of state government or an agency may not, by administrative action, create or attempt to create an agency of state government. This section does not apply to:

A majority of the members shall be appointed to serve for terms concurrent with the gubernatorial term and until their successors are appointed and qualified. The remaining members shall be appointed to serve for terms ending on the first day of the third January of the succeeding gubernatorial term and until their successors are appointed and qualified. It is the intent of this subsection that the governor appoint a majority of the members of each quasi-judicial board at the beginning of his term and the remaining members in the middle of his term. As used in this subsection, "majority" means the next whole number greater than half.

(3) The appointment of each member is subject to the confirmation of the senate. However, the governor may appoint a member to assume office before the senate meets at its next regular session to consider the appointment. A member so appointed has all the powers of the office upon assuming that office and is a de jure officer, notwithstanding the fact that the senate has not yet confirmed the appointment. If the senate does not confirm the appointment of a member, the governor shall appoint a new member to serve for the remainder of the term.

(4) A vacancy shall be filled in the same manner as regular appointments, and the member appointed to fill a vacancy shall serve for the unexpired term to which he is appointed.

(5) The governor shall designate the chairman. The chairman may make and second motions and vote.

(6) Members may be removed by the governor only for cause.

(7) Unless he is a full-time salaried officer or employee of this state or of a political subdivision of this state, each member is entitled to be paid $25 for each day in which he is actually and necessarily engaged in the performance of board duties, and he is also entitled to be reimbursed for travel expenses, as provided for in 2-18-501 through 2-18-503, incurred while in the performance of board duties. Members who are full-time salaried officers or employees of this state or of a political subdivision of this state are not entitled to be compensated for their service as members but are entitled to be reimbursed for travel expenses as provided for in 2-18-501 through 2-18-503.

(8) A majority of the membership constitutes a quorum to do business. A favorable vote of at least a majority of all members of a board is required to adopt any resolution, motion, or other decision, unless otherwise provided by law.

1981 Amendments: Chapter 247 inserted "with the consent of the senate" in (2).

Chapter 474 substituted the present language of (5) for "(5) The members of the board shall be compensated and reimbursed as are members of advisory councils in 2-15-122".

Board Compensation and Travel Expenses — Preamble and Title: The title and preamble of SB 463 (Ch. 474, L. 1981) which provided for uniform compensation and travel expenses for board members, are located in the compiler's comments under 37-1-133.

Preamble — Senate Confirmation: The preamble to SB 424 (Ch. 247, L. 1981), provided:

"WHEREAS, the Legislative Audit Committee has completed its review of regulatory and licensing boards under the first two sunset cycles; and

WHEREAS, it was noted that appointments to many regulatory and licensing boards are not subject to Senate confirmation; and

WHEREAS, Senate confirmation provides an opportunity for input to the appointment process by members of the regulated trade, profession, or industry and by the public, which is in the public interest.

THEREFORE, it is the intent of this act to provide for Senate confirmation of members of regulatory and licensing boards not presently requiring Senate confirmation."

Language Not Codified: Chapter 474, L. 1981, contained the phrase "for boards allocated to the department of professional and occupational licensing" at the end of (5) of 2-15-1102. Chapter 274, L. 1981, instructed the Code Commissioner to change all references to the "department of professional and occupational licensing" to the "department of commerce" and reallocated the board of county printing from the department of community affairs to the department of commerce. With the reallocation and department name change the phrase becomes redundant and hence was not codified.

1981 Amendments: Chapter 244 deleted language in (2) and (3) requiring the Governor to appoint members from a list of names submitted by the Montana Academy of Otoopthalmology, Montana Speech and Hearing Association, and Montana Hearing Aid Dealers' Society; deleted former subsection (2)(d) providing for an alternate member; deleted the second sentence in (3) relating to filling a vacancy from a list; and made minor changes in phraseology.

Chapter 247 inserted "with the consent of the senate" in (2).

Chapter 444 deleted former subsection (2)(b), which required one member of the board to be selected from a list submitted by the Montana Speech and Hearing Association which member was to hold or be eligible for a certificate of clinical competence in audiology; inserted subsection (2)(c); and substituted "categories" for "list" in former subsection (2)(b) and in the former last sentence of subsection (3).

Composite Section: Chapter 244 and Ch. 444, L. 1981, amended the same subsections in several instances creating some inconsistencies in language. There were no apparent substantive conflicts and the Code Commissioner resolved the inconsistencies as follows:

(1) Chapter 444 restructured the board makeup, therefore its deletion of a member by striking subsection (2)(b) took precedence over Ch. 244, which amended (2)(b) with the intention of merely removing an appointment list requirement;

(2) Chapter 244 deleted the alternate board member provision by striking subsection (2)(d), therefore the minor amendment to (2)(d) made by Ch. 444 in order to accommodate the addition of a public member as a category was not codified; and

(3) Chapter 244 deleted the provision for filling vacancies by striking the second sentence of (3), therefore the minor amendment to that sentence made by Ch. 444 in order to accommodate the addition of a public member was not codified.

1981 Amendments: Chapter 106 substituted "licensed cosmetologists" for "members who may be appointed by the governor from a list of six persons recommended by the Montana state hairdressers' association" and added a public member at the beginning of (2); inserted "licensed cosmetologist" near the beginning of the second sentence of (2).

Chapter 247 inserted "with the consent of the senate" in (2).

Commissioner Clarification: The bracketed language in (2) was inserted by the Code Commissioner to clarify that the governor holds the appointing power. Deletion of that language by sec. 3, Ch. 106, L. 1981, was an apparent oversight, since appointment is referred to several times without stating the appointing authority.

Preamble — Board Reestablished: The preamble to SB 406 (Ch. 106, L. 1981) read:

"WHEREAS, the sunset law, sections 2-8-103 and 2-8-112, MCA, terminates the Board of Cosmetologists and requires a performance evaluation of the Board by the Legislative Audit Committee; and WHEREAS, as a result of the performance evaluation, the Legislative Audit Committee recommends that the Board of Cosmetologists be reestablished under existing statutory authority." See State of Montana Report to the Legislature, Sunset Review Board of Cosmetologists, 79SS-13, Legislative Auditor, 1980.

WHEREAS, it was noted that appointments to many regulatory and licensing boards are not subject to Senate confirmation; and

WHEREAS, Senate confirmation provides an opportunity for input to the appointment process by members of the regulated trade, profession, or industry and by the public, which is in the public interest.

THEREFORE, it is the intent of this act to provide for Senate confirmation of members of regulatory and licensing boards not presently requiring Senate confirmation."

Reestablishment: Section 1, Ch. 106, L. 1981, provided: "The board of cosmetologists is reestablished for 6 years pursuant to 2-8-122 with its existing statutory authority and rules."

He shall appoint one member each to hold office for terms of 1 year, 2 years, and 3 years, respectively. At the end of each member's appointed term, a member shall be appointed for a full 3-year term.

(5) A vacancy on the board must be filled in the same manner as the original appointment. These appointments may only be made for the unexpired portions of the term.

(6) No member may be appointed for more than two consecutive terms.

(7) The governor may remove any board member for negligence in performance of any duty required by law and for incompetence or unprofessional or dishonorable conduct.

1981 Amendments: Chapter 244 deleted language in (2) requiring the governor to appoint members recommended by the Montana chapter of the American physical therapy association; deleted the language in (3) that stated an appointee need not be a member of the Montana chapter of the association; and deleted (5) and part of (6) concerning listing of nominees and filling vacancies from the list.

Preamble — Appointment From Lists Submitted by Private Associations: The preamble to SB 312 (Ch. 244, L. 1981) read:

WHEREAS, the opportunity for members of the public and private associations to submit nominees to the Governor for board appointments is in the public interest.

THEREFORE, it is the intent of this bill to delete requirements that appointments by the Governor to regulatory and licensing boards must be made from lists submitted by private associations and to provide that members of the public and private associations may submit nominees to the Governor for appointment to regulatory and licensing boards."

Preamble — Senate Confirmation: The preamble to Ch. 247, L. 1981, provided:

"WHEREAS, the Legislative Audit Committee has completed its review of regulatory and licensing boards under the first two sunset cycles; and

Part 3

Compensation Determination

Part Compiler's Comments

Pay Schedules — Adoption — Internal References: Sections 2-18-311 through 2-18-315 establishing state pay schedules, with the exception of 2-18-311, were not amended in 1981. Section 2-18-311 was amended in sec. 5, Ch. 421, L. 1981, to delete the fiscal year 1980 pay schedule, which was the total substance of the section text, and its catchline was inadvertantly amended to become substantive law reading: "Pay schedules for fiscal year 1982 and 1983 shall be adjusted by the governor in a manner which will cost no more for pay raises than the appropriation contained in this bill." The fiscal year 1980 and 1981 pay schedules enacted in those sections, except 2-18-311, although not repealed, are obsolete because the pay schedules adopted by the governor in Executive Order No. 7-81 are the basis for state employees pay. Because of their obsolescence the code commissioner has not codified those sections.

Section 2-18-303 was amended with the assumption that new pay schedules would be legislatively enacted. When HB 840 (now Ch. 421, L. 1981) was amended to delete pay schedules, substituting the Governor's authority to set pay schedules, the internal references were not changed accordingly. The code commissioner has added the bracketed language in 2-18-303 for the convenience of the code user and to reflect the language contained in Executive Order No. 7-81 that references to pay schedule sections refer to the pay schedules adopted by the Governor (see Part Compiler's Comment "Executive Order No. 7-81" below). The Code Commissioner has similarly added bracketed language to every section containing a reference to 2-18-311 through 2-18-315.

The pay schedules adopted by the governor are located in compiler's comments under the appropriate sections.

Effective Dates of Pay Schedules: (1) Section 12(1), Ch. 421, L. 1981, provided: "Sections 1 through 15 [sic], excluding section 2, are effective July 11, 1981." The chapter contained only 12 sections. Section 5 authorized the governor to establish pay schedules; section 9 appropriated funds for employee pay.

(2) Paragraph 2, Executive Order No. 7-81, provided: "The state employee pay schedules for fiscal years 1982 and 1983 as set forth [in] this Executive Order shall be effective on the first day of the first full pay period of the fiscal year to which they apply." Those dates are July 11, 1981, and July 10, 1982.

Executive Order No. 7-81: Executive Order No. 7-81, signed by Ted Schwinden, Governor, on May 7, 1981, provided in part:
"Executive Order Establishing State Employee Pay Schedules for Fiscal Years 1982 and 1983.

I, TED SCHWINDEN, in accordance with the authority vested in me as Governor by the laws and Constitution of the State of Montana, and specifically by Chapter 421, Laws of 1981, hereby establish the state employee pay schedules for fiscal years 1982 and 1983 as set forth herein. By law, these pay schedules shall supersede the pay schedules contained in Sections 2-18-311 through 2-18-315, MCA, and all statutory references contained in Title 2, Chapter 18, MCA shall refer to the schedules established herein.

The state employee pay schedules for fiscal years 1982 and 1983 as set forth [in] this Executive Order shall be effective on the first day of the first full pay period of the fiscal year to which they apply." The pay schedules are listed in compiler's comments under the appropriate sections.

2-18-301. Purpose and intent of part — rules. (1) The purpose of this part is to provide the compensation necessary to attract and retain competent and qualified employees in order to perform the services the state is required to provide to its citizens.

(2) It is the intent of the legislature that, for the biennium ending June 30, 1983, the:

(a) pay schedules provided for in [the adjusted schedules under] 2-18-311 through 2-18-315 supersede any other plan or systems established through collective bargaining after the adjournment of the 47th legislature;

(b) pay levels provided for in [the adjusted schedules under] 2-18-311 through 2-18-315 may not be increased through collective bargaining after adjournment of the 47th legislature; and

(c) total funds required to implement the pay schedules provided for in [the adjusted schedules under] 2-18-311 through 2-18-315 for any employee group or bargaining unit may not be increased through collective bargaining over the amount appropriated by the 47th legislature.

(3) The department shall administer the pay program established by the legislature on the basis of merit, internal equity, and competitiveness to external labor markets when fiscally able.

(4) The department may promulgate rules not inconsistent with the provisions of this part, collective bargaining statutes, or negotiated contracts to carry out the purposes of this part.

Compiler's Comments

1981 Amendment: Substituted "1983" for "1981" in (2); substituted "47th legislature" for "46th legislature" in (2)(a), (2)(b), and (2)(c).

Code Commissioner Correction: The bracketed language in this section was added by the code commissioner to reflect the intent of the governor's adoption of pay schedules as authorized by 2-18-311 and implemented by Executive Order No. 7-81. See part compiler's comments at Title 2, ch. 18, part 3.

Effective Date: Section 12(1), Ch. 421, L. 1981, provided: "Sections 1 through 15, excluding section 2, are effective July 11, 1981."

2-18-302. Salary schedules maintained by department. The department shall maintain a schedule of all salaries paid to personnel of civil executive state offices and shall only approve payroll claims agreeing with that schedule. All changes in personnel or salary status shall be authorized as provided by law, and the department shall alter the schedule accordingly when notified by the authorizing agency. However, no changes in personnel or salary status may be authorized that will cause an agency to exceed its appropriation or that will result in a deficiency or supplemental appropriation request to the legislature.

History: En. Sec. 4, Ch. 97, L. 1961; amd. Sec. 49, Ch. 326, L. 1974; R.C.M. 1947, 82-109.4.

2-18-303. Procedures for utilizing pay schedules. (1) The pay schedules provided in [the adjusted schedules under] 2-18-311 and 2-18-312 shall be implemented as follows:

(a) The pay schedule provided in [the adjusted schedule under] 2-18-311 indicates the annual compensation for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1982, for each grade and step for positions classified under the provisions of part 2 of this chapter.

(b) The pay schedule provided in [the adjusted schedule under] 2-18-312 indicates the annual compensation for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1983, for each grade and step for positions classified under the provisions of part 2 of this chapter.

(c) Each new employee shall advance from step 1 to step 2 of a grade after successfully completing 6 months of probationary service. The anniversary date of an employee shall be established at the end of the probationary period in accordance with rules promulgated by the department.

(d) (i) The compensation of each employee on the first day of the first pay period in fiscal year 1982 shall be that amount which corresponds to the grade and step occupied on the last day of the preceding fiscal year of 1981.

(ii) The compensation of each employee on the first day of the first pay period in fiscal year 1983 shall be that amount which corresponds to the grade and step occupied on the last day of the fiscal year 1982.

(iii) In compliance with rules adopted to implement this part, each employee is eligible on his anniversary date to advance one step in the pay matrix each fiscal year. However, if the employee's anniversary date falls between (inclusive) July 1 and the first day of the first pay period of fiscal year 1982 or 1983, as the case may be, he will advance one step on the first day of that pay period.

(2) The pay schedules provided in [the adjusted schedules under] 2-18-311 and 2-18-312 and the provisions of subsection (1) of this section do not apply to those institutional teachers, liquor store occupations, or blue-collar occupations compensated under the pay schedules provided in [the adjusted schedules under] 2-18-313, 2-18-314, or 2-18-315.

(3) The pay schedules provided in [the adjusted schedules under] 2-18-313, 2-18-314, or 2-18-315 shall be implemented as follows:

(a) (i) The pay schedules provided in [the adjusted schedules under] 2-18-313 indicate the annual compensation for the contracted school term for teachers employed by institutions under the authority of the department of institutions for fiscal years 1982 and 1983.

(ii) The compensation of each teacher on the first day of the first pay period in July, 1981, shall be that amount which corresponds to his level of academic achievement and the next highest step from that occupied on June 30, 1981.

(iii) The compensation of each teacher on the first day of the first pay period in July, 1982, shall be that amount which corresponds to his level of achievement and the next highest step from that occupied on June 30, 1982.

(b) (i) The pay schedules provided in [the adjusted schedules under] 2-18-314 indicate the maximum hourly compensation for fiscal years ending June 30, 1982, and June 30, 1983, for those employees in liquor store occupations who have collectively bargained separate classification and pay plans.

(ii) The compensation of each employee on the first day of the first pay period in fiscal year 1982 or 1983, as the case may be, shall be that amount which corresponds to that grade occupied on the last day of the preceding fiscal year.

(c) (i) The pay schedules provided in [the adjusted schedules under] 2-18-315 indicate the maximum hourly compensation for fiscal years ending June 30, 1982, and June 30, 1983, for employees in apprentice trades and crafts and other blue-collar occupations recognized in the state blue-collar classification plan who are members of units that have collectively bargained separate classification and pay plans.

(ii) The compensation of each employee on the first day of the first pay period in fiscal year 1982 or 1983, as the case may be, shall be that amount which corresponds to that grade occupied on the last day of the preceding fiscal year.

(4) (a) (i) No member of a bargaining unit may receive the amounts indicated in the respective pay schedules provided in [the adjusted schedules under] 2-18-311 through 2-18-315 until the bargaining unit of which he is a member ratifies a completely integrated collective bargaining agreement covering the biennium ending June 30, 1983.

(ii) In the event that negotiation and ratification of a completely integrated collective bargaining agreement as required by subsection (4)(a)(i) of this section are not completed by July 1, 1981, retroactivity to that date may be negotiated.

(iii) In the event that negotiation and ratification of a completely integrated collective bargaining agreement as required by subsection (4)(a)(i) of this section are not completed by July 1, 1981, members of the bargaining unit involved will continue to receive the compensation they were receiving as of June 30, 1981.

(b) Methods of administration not inconsistent with the purpose of this part and necessary to properly implement the pay schedules provided in [the adjusted schedules under] 2-18-313 through 2-18-315 may be provided for in collective bargaining agreements.

(5) The current wage or salary of an employee shall not be reduced by the implementation of the pay schedules provided for in [the adjusted schedules under] 2-18-311 through 2-18-315.

(6) The department may authorize a separate pay schedule for medical doctors if the rates provided in [the adjusted schedules under] 2-18-311 and 2-18-312 are not sufficient to attract and retain fully licensed and qualified physicians at the state institutions.

(7) The department may develop programs which will enable the department to mitigate problems associated with difficult recruitment, retention, transfer, or other exceptional circumstances. Insofar as the program may apply to employees within a collective bargaining unit, it shall be a negotiable subject under 39-31-305.

Except as provided in subsection (2) of this section, that amount specifically allocated for group benefits shall be determined by 2-18-703. Compiler's Comments

Pay Schedule Adopted: Prior to amendment in 1981 this section contained the fiscal year 1980 general pay schedule. The section as amended in 1981 provides that the Governor shall adopt pay schedules for fiscal years 1982 and 1983. In adopting the fiscal year 1982 general pay schedule, Executive Order No. 7-81 provided that the 1982 schedule superseded the one found previously in that section. For that reason and because of many references in the MCA made to the pay schedule under this section, the Code Commissioner has printed the Governor's fiscal year 1982 general pay schedule as a compiler's comment under this section. For a comprehensive explanation of the adoption of the pay schedules and their effective dates, see the part compiler's comments under Title 2, ch. 18, part 3.

The following is the adjusted general pay schedule adopted by the Governor in Executive Order No. 7-81 for fiscal year 1983:

This authority will allow the state of Montana and other political subdivisions to take advantage of the option to exclude payments of sick pay (for illness) from the Social Security (FICA) Tax."

Saving Clause: Section 3, Ch. 178, L. 1981, provided: "This act does not affect existing rights to sick leave under 2-18-618, including accrued sick leave; provided, however, that the department of administration may utilize the use of sick leave credits provided for in 2-18-618 in developing and administering a sick-pay plan for state employees."

Statement of Intent: The statement of intent for HB 161 (Ch. 552, L. 1981) read: "The general purpose of H.B. 161 is to provide incentives to state employees to make suggestions or to create inventions that reduce the costs of government operations or improve government operations without increasing costs. The discretion of the Department of Administration in granting awards is limited to 10% of the cost savings realized in the first year, or $500, whichever is less. Larger awards may be proposed but the Legislature must approve the awards and appropriate the money.

The purpose for giving the Department of Administration rulemaking authority is that it can best administer the program consistently throughout state government and determine the amount of money appropriate for an incentive award.

It is contemplated that the rules should address the following:

(1) the composition of the Advisory Council created by the bill;

(2) the procedures and bylaws that the Advisory Council will follow when conducting its business;

(3) providing model suggestion systems for agencies to use when administering the incentive program;

(4) standards to assure administration of the program on a statewide basis;

(5) forms that may be necessary to administer the provisions in the bill;

(6) procedures for detailed investigations and evaluations of suggestions;

(7) procedures for filing suggestions with the Department;

(8) procedures for the review of employee concerns regarding the fair administration of the program;

(9) time limits for the review of suggestions and inventions;

(10) procedures for the presentation of suggestions or inventions to the Legislature when the legitimate value of the ideas exceeds the $500 limit in the bill;

(11) procedures covering the timely payment of cash awards that are approved by the Department;

(12) procedures to maintain the integrity of the program through the review of awards to assure that they are granted equitably, on the basis of merit, and that the reasons for granting an award are made public. All provisions of this act shall expire and terminate on July 1, 1983."

2-18-1104. (Temporary) Appointment and functions of advisory council. (1) The department shall appoint an incentive awards advisory council under 2-15-122. Members of the advisory council must be selected from a diverse group to adequately represent employees.

(2) The advisory council shall meet regularly and consult with the department to review all proposed incentive awards and to recommend granting or rejecting these awards.

History: En. Sec. 4, Ch. 552, L. 1981.

2-18-1105. (Temporary) Eligibility for award. (1) Except as provided in subsection (2), an employee may be eligible for an incentive award if his suggestion or invention results in:

(a) eliminating or reducing an agency's expenditures; or

(b) improving services to the public by permitting more work to be accomplished within an agency without increasing the cost of governmental operations.

(2) (a) An employee may not be eligible for an incentive award if his suggestion or invention directly relates to his assigned duties and responsibilities unless the proposal is so superior or meritorious as to warrant special recognition as determined by the department.

(b) Suggestions or inventions relating to the following matters may not be considered for awards:

(i) personnel grievances;

(ii) classification and pay of positions;

(iii) matters recommended for study or review; and

(iv) proposals resulting from assigned or contracted audits, studies, surveys, reviews, or research.

History: En. Sec. 5, Ch. 552, L. 1981.

2-18-1106. (Temporary) Agency head to grant award — amount and source of award. (1) After an agency implements an employee's suggestion or invention and the monetary savings to the state is estimated, an agency head, upon written application to and approval from the department and the incentive awards advisory council, may grant an incentive award to an employee whose proposal meets the requirements enumerated in 2-18-1105.

(2) The incentive award may not be more than 10% of the savings resulting from implementing the employee's proposal for 1 year up to a maximum of $500. Larger awards may be proposed and submitted to the legislature for consideration.

(3) The agency head shall pay the employee from the agency's budget in a single, lump-sum award. This award is in addition to the recipient's regular compensation.

However, if insufficient funds remain to settle all outstanding accounts, then the department shall prorate all claims in the ratio of their amount to the total cash available. The department shall seek a supplemental appropriation from the next regular session of the legislature to pay the remaining balance of the creditors' claims. Compiler's Comments

1981 Amendment: Inserted "Except as provided in 3-1-1107 and 3-1-1121 through 3-1-1126" at the beginning of subsection (1) (see Commissioner Correction Compiler's Comment); combined subsections (1) and (2), and renumbered subsection (3); added a provision in subsection (2) that the commission shall make rules for the enforcement of confidentiality consistent with this part.

Commissioner Correction: The exception clause added to subsection (1) by the 1981 amendment did not include section 8 of the amending session law chapter, which corresponds to 3-1-1126, MCA. The code commissioner included 3-1-1126 in the clause because it had been section 7 of the introduced bill, which was included in the clause; when section 7 was renumbered section 8 during the legislative process, the exception clause, by apparent oversight, was not changed accordingly.

3-1-1106. Investigation of judicial officers — hearing — recommendations. (1) The commission or any citizen of the state may, upon good cause shown, initiate an investigation of any judicial officer in the state by filing a verified written complaint with the commission.

(2) The commission, after such investigation as it considers necessary and upon the finding of good cause, may:

(a) order a hearing to be held before it concerning the censure, suspension, removal, or retirement of a judicial officer; or

(b) request the supreme court to appoint one or more special masters who are judges of courts of record to hear and take evidence and to report to the commission.

(3) If after hearing or after considering the record and report of the masters the commission finds the charges true, it shall recommend to the supreme court the censure, suspension, removal, or retirement of the judicial officer.

History: En. Sec. 5, Ch. 95, L. 1973; R.C.M. 1947, 93-722.

3-1-1107. Action by supreme court. (1) The supreme court shall review the record of the proceedings and shall make such determination as it finds just and proper and may:

(a) order censure, suspension, removal, or retirement of a judicial officer; or

(b) wholly reject the recommendation.

(2) Any hearing conducted before the supreme court relative to a recommendation by the commission, together with all papers pertaining to such recommendation, shall be accessible to the public.

History: En. Sec. 7, Ch. 95, L. 1973; R.C.M. 1947, 93-724; amd. Sec. 3, Ch. 441, L. 1981.

3-1-1108. Nonparticipation of interested judicial officer. A judicial officer who is a member of the commission or of the supreme court may not participate in any proceeding involving his own censure, suspension, removal, or retirement or that of his spouse, a relative within the sixth degree of consanguinity, or the spouse of such a relative.

History: En. Sec. 8, Ch. 95, L. 1973; amd. Sec. 31, Ch. 344, L. 1977; R.C.M. 1947, 93-725.

3-1-1109. Interim disqualification of judicial officer. A judicial officer is disqualified from acting as such, without loss of salary, while there is pending:

(1) an indictment or an information charging him with a crime punishable as a felony under Montana or federal law; or

(2) a formal proceeding before the commission for his removal or retirement.

History: En. Sec. 9, Ch. 95, L. 1973; amd. Sec. 32, Ch. 344, L. 1977; R.C.M. 1947, 93-726.

3-1-1110. Procedure when convicted of crime. (1) On recommendation of the commission, the supreme court may suspend a judicial officer from office without salary when he pleads guilty or no contest or is found guilty of a crime punishable as a felony under Montana or federal law or of any other crime involving moral turpitude.

(2) If his conviction is reversed, suspension terminates and he shall be paid his salary for the period of suspension.

(3) If he is suspended and his conviction becomes final, the supreme court shall remove him from office.

History: En. Sec. 10, Ch. 95, L. 1973; R.C.M. 1947, 93-727.

3-1-1111. Orders for retirement or removal. (1) Upon an order for retirement, the judicial officer shall be retired with the same rights and privileges as if he retired pursuant to statute.

(2) Upon an order for removal, the judicial officer shall be removed from office and his salary shall cease from the date of the order. He shall be ineligible for any other judicial office and pending further order of the court is suspended from practicing law.

History: En. Sec. 11, Ch. 95, L. 1973; R.C.M. 1947, 93-728.

3-1-1112 through 3-1-1120 reserved.

3-1-1121. Public disclosure required. If the commission finds good cause to order a hearing pursuant to 3-1-1106(2), the commission must allow public access to:

(1) all papers pertaining to each finding of good cause, including charges that are later determined not to be grounds for recommending retirement or disciplinary action to the supreme court;

(2) the proceedings in which the commission or masters hear the charges against a judge; and

(3) all transcripts or recordings of proceedings before the commission or masters pertaining to the matters described in subsections (1) and (2).

History: En. Sec. 2, Ch. 441, L. 1981.

Complier's Comments

Codification Instruction: Section 9, Ch. 441, L. 1981, provided: "Sections 2 through 7 [3-1-1121 through 3-1-1126] are intended to be codified as an integral part of Title 3, chapter 1, part 11, and the provisions of Title 3, chapter 1, part 11, apply to sections 2 through 7." Sections 2 through 7 of the introduced bill are codified at 3-1-1121 through 3-1-1126. Section 3, Ch. 446, L. 1981 was added to the introduced bill and sections 3 through 7 of the introduced bill were renumbered sections 4 through 8. The codification instruction was not amended to reflect that change. Section 8 was codified as 3-1-1126 because that was the apparent intent of the original bill.

Source: Sections 3-1-1121 through 3-1-1126 are partially based upon American Bar Association, Proposed Standards Relating to Judicial Discipline and Disability Nos. 1.1 through 9.4 (1977).

3-1-1122. Judge's waiver of confidentiality — hearing made public. The commission must allow public access to all papers filed with and testimony and hearings before the commission or masters in a given case if the judge against whom a complaint has been filed waives his right of confidentiality and requests in writing that the proceedings be accessible to the public.

History: En. Sec. 4, Ch. 441, L. 1981.

3-1-1123. Public statements by commission. In any case in which the subject matter becomes public, through independent sources or through a waiver of confidentiality by the judge against whom the complaint has been filed, the commission may issue statements as it considers appropriate in order to:

(1) confirm the pendency of the investigation;
(2) clarify the procedural aspects of the disciplinary proceedings;
(3) explain the right of the judge to a fair hearing without prejudgment;
(4) state that the judge denies the allegations; or
(5) declare that there is insufficient evidence for a finding of good cause.

History: En. Sec. 5, Ch. 441, L. 1981.

3-1-1124. Disclosure for judicial selection — appointment or assignment. If in connection with the selection or appointment of a judge, any state or federal agency seeks information or written materials from the commission concerning that judge, information may be divulged in accordance with procedures prescribed by the commission, including reasonable notice to the judge affected unless the judge signs a waiver of notice. If in connection with the assignment of a retired judge to judicial duties, any appropriate authority seeks information or written materials from the commission about that judge, information may be divulged in accordance with procedures prescribed by the commission, including reasonable notice to the judge affected unless the judge signs a waiver of notice.

History: En. Sec. 6, Ch. 441, L. 1981.

3-1-1125. Efficiency and effectiveness — audit authorized. (1) The legislative auditor may audit the commission to determine whether it is efficiently and effectively processing complaints against judicial officers in the state in accordance with this part.

(2) The confidentiality provisions of this part do not bar the legislative auditor from obtaining access to any information possessed by the commission that is necessary to the legislative audit function so long as confidential information is kept confidential by the legislative auditor.

History: En. Sec. 7, Ch. 441, L. 1981.

3-1-1126. Commission report to legislature. (1) The commission shall submit to the legislature each year the legislature meets in regular session a report containing the following information:

(a) identification of each complaint, whether or not verified, received by the commission during the preceding biennium by a separate number that in no way reveals the identity of the judge complained against;

(b) the date each complaint was filed;

(c) the general nature of each complaint;

(d) whether there have been previous complaints against the same judge and, if so, the general nature of the previous complaints;

(e) the present status of all complaints filed with or pending before the commission during the preceding biennium; and

(f) whenever a final disposition of a complaint has been made during the preceding biennium, the nature of the disposition, the commission's recommendation, if any, to the supreme court, and the action taken by the supreme court.

(2) The commission must observe the confidentiality provisions of this part in fulfilling the requirements of this section.

Part 5

Trial Juries — District Court

3-15-501. Order directing that trial jury be drawn and summoned. (1) At least once each year in each county, when a civil or criminal case has been at issue and ready for trial for more than 6 months and the plaintiff or defendant in such case has requested a jury trial or whenever the business of a district court requires the attendance of a trial jury for the trial of civil or criminal cases and no jury is in attendance, the court must make an order directing a trial jury to be drawn and summoned to attend before said court. Such order must specify the number of jurors to be drawn and the time at which the jurors are required to attend, which time may be at the same term in which the jurors are drawn or at the next succeeding term, in the discretion of the court.

(2) The court may direct that such causes, either criminal or civil, in which a jury may be required or in which a jury may have been demanded be continued and fixed for trial when a jury shall be in attendance.

(3) A district court may draw more than one trial jury in a given year if, in the opinion of the judge or judges thereof, the service of the trial jury in attendance has been unduly demanding, and in such case the trial jury in attendance may be excused by the court from further jury duty in that year.

(4) The judge or judges of a district or the judge of a department may designate that jury service in his or their district or department is on a "one-day or one-trial" basis; that is, each individual juror is excused for the rest of the year after having attended for 1 day and not having been selected to serve at the trial of a particular cause or after having completed service at such a trial.

(5) If the number of unexcused jurors is not sufficient to meet current requirements at any time, jurors excused under subsection (3) or (4) may be required to serve.

1981 Amendment: Completely rewrote section that formerly read: "District judge to draw jury. Immediately after the order mentioned in 3-15-501 has been made, the district judge shall in the presence of the clerk of the court proceed to draw the jurors by number from the jury box."

3-15-503. Drawing — how conducted. (1) The clerk shall place the box on a rod so that it may readily revolve. The box must be revolved a sufficient number of times to ensure that the numbered slips in it become thoroughly mixed. Thereafter the jury commissioner shall draw from the box, one at a time, as many of the numbered slips as are ordered by the court.

(2) A record of the drawing shall be entered in the minutes of the court. It must show the names of the jurors corresponding to the numbers drawn from the jury box.

(3) If the jury commissioner is satisfied that any person whose name is drawn is deceased or mentally incompetent or has permanently moved from the county, the name of the person shall be omitted from the list and another name shall be drawn in its place. The reason for the omission shall be entered upon the minutes of the court. The same procedure shall be followed as often as may be necessary, until the number of names of jurors required has been drawn.

(4) No person may be asked to serve for more than one term during any year unless all the numbers in the jury box have been drawn and there are no other qualified jurors available.

Part 3

Action by Governor on Bills

5-4-301. Bills received by the governor — how endorsed. Each bill passed by the legislature, except bills proposing amendments to the Montana constitution, bills ratifying proposed amendments to the United States constitution, resolutions, and initiative and referendum measures, shall be submitted to the governor for his signature. Each bill must, as soon as delivered to the governor, be endorsed as follows: "This bill was received by the governor this .... day of ...., 19..". The endorsement must be signed by an assistant authorized by the governor or by the governor himself.

History: En. Sec. 270, Pol. C. 1895; re-en. Sec. 100, Rev. C. 1907; re-en. Sec. 84, R.C.M. 1921; Cal. Pol. C. Sec. 309; re-en. Sec. 84, R.C.M. 1935; amd. Sec. 1, Ch. 31, L. 1973; R.C.M. 1947, 43-501.

5-4-302. Approval of bills. When the governor approves a bill, he must set his name thereto with the date of his approval and deposit the same in the office of the secretary of state.

History: En. Sec. 271, Pol. C. 1895; re-en. Sec. 101, Rev. C. 1907; re-en. Sec. 85, R.C.M. 1921; Cal. Pol. C. Sec. 310; re-en. Sec. 85, R.C.M. 1935; amd. Sec. 1, Ch. 157, L. 1973; R.C.M. 1947, 43-502(1).

5-4-303. Line item veto. If any bill presented to the governor contains several distinct items of appropriation of money, he may disapprove one or more items while approving other portions of the bill. In such case he shall append to the bill, at the time of signing it, a statement of the items to which he objects and his objections thereto. The governor must transmit to the house in which the bill originated (or to the secretary of state if the legislature is not in session) a copy of such statement, and the items so objected to must be separately reconsidered in the same manner as bills which have been disapproved by the governor.

History: En. Sec. 271, Pol. C. 1895; re-en. Sec. 101, Rev. C. 1907; re-en. Sec. 85, R.C.M. 1921; Cal. Pol. C. Sec. 310; re-en. Sec. 85, R.C.M. 1935; amd. Sec. 1, Ch. 157, L. 1973; R.C.M. 1947, 43-502(2).

5-4-304. Amendatory veto. The governor may return any bill to the originating house with his recommendations for amendment. Such house shall reconsider the bill under its rules relating to amendment offered in committee of the whole. The bill is then subject to the following procedures:

(1) The originating house shall transmit to the second house, for consideration under its rules relating to amendments in committee of the whole, the bill and the originating house's approval or disapproval of the governor's recommendations.

(2) If both houses approve the governor's recommendations, the bill shall be returned to the governor for his reconsideration.

(3) If both houses disapprove the governor's recommendations, the bill shall be returned to the governor for his reconsideration.

(4) If one house disapproves the governor's recommendations and the other house approves, then either house may request a conference committee, which may be a free conference committee:

(a) If both houses adopt a conference committee report, the bill in accordance with the report shall be returned to the governor for his reconsideration.

(b) If a conference committee fails to reach agreement or if its report is not adopted by both houses, the governor's recommendations shall be considered not approved and the bill shall be returned to the governor for further consideration.

(5) The governor may not return the bill for amendment a second time.

History: En. Sec. 271, Pol. C. 1895; re-en. Sec. 101, Rev. C. 1907; re-en. Sec. 85, R.C.M. 1921; Cal. Pol. C. Sec. 310; re-en. Sec. 85, R.C.M. 1935; amd. Sec. 1, Ch. 157, L. 1973; R.C.M. 1947, 43-502(3).

5-4-305. Bills returned without approval. (1) A bill or item or items of an appropriations bill become law whenever:

(a) the bill passes both houses of the legislature;

(b) the bill is returned by the governor without his signature and with objections thereto or, if it is a bill containing several items of appropriation of money, with objections to one or more items; and

(c) upon reconsideration the bill or item or items pass both houses by the constitutional majority.

(2) The bill or item or items shall be authenticated by a certificate endorsed on or attached to the bill or the copy of the statement of objections. The form of the certificate shall be: "This bill having been returned by the governor with his objections thereto and, after reconsideration, having passed both houses by the constitutional majority has become a law this .... day of ...., A.D. ...." or "The following items in the within statement (naming them) having, after reconsideration, passed both houses by the constitutional majority have become a law this .... day of ...., A.D. ...". The endorsement, signed by the president of the senate and the speaker of the house, is sufficient authentication of the bill or item or items.

(3) The authenticated bill or statement shall be delivered to the governor, who shall deposit it with the laws in the office of the secretary of state.

History: En. Sec. 272, Pol. C. 1895; re-en. Sec. 102, Rev. C. 1907; re-en. Sec. 86, R.C.M. 1921; Cal. Pol. C. Sec. 311; re-en. Sec. 86, R.C.M. 1935; amd. Sec. 7, Ch. 309, L. 1977; R.C.M. 1947, 43-503.

5-4-306. Return when legislature not in session. (1) If, on the day the governor desires to return a bill without his approval and with his objections thereto to the house in which it originated, that house has adjourned for the day (but not for the session), he may deliver the bill with his message to the presiding officer, secretary, clerk, or any member of such house. Such delivery is as effectual as though returned in open session if the governor, on the first day the house is again in session, by message, notifies it of such delivery and of the time when and the person to whom such delivery was made.

(2) If the legislature is not in session when the governor vetoes a bill, he shall return the bill with his reasons for the veto to the secretary of state. The secretary of state shall immediately mail a copy of the bill and the veto message to each member of the legislature.

(3) The legislature may reconvene to reconsider any bill so vetoed by using the statutory procedure provided for convening in special session.

History: En. Sec. 273, Pol. C. 1895; re-en. Sec. 103, Rev. C. 1907; re-en. Sec. 87, R.C.M. 1921; Cal. Pol. C. Sec. 312; re-en. Sec. 87, R.C.M. 1935; amd. Sec. 1, Ch. 63, L. 1973; R.C.M. 1947, 43-504.

5-4-307. Bills remaining with the governor. (1) A bill which has passed both houses of the legislature and has not been returned by the governor within 5 days after its delivery to him if the legislature is in session or within 25 days if the legislature is adjourned becomes law.

(2) The governor shall deliver the bill to the secretary of state and direct him to authenticate it by a certificate endorsed or attached thereon. The form of the certificate shall be: "This bill having remained with the governor 5 days, and the legislature being in session, it has become a law this .... day of ...., ..." or "This bill having remained with the governor 25 days, and the legislature being adjourned, it has become a law this .... day of ...., ...". The certificate shall be signed by the secretary of state and deposited with the laws in his office.

History: En. Sec. 274, Pol. C. 1895; re-en. Sec. 104, Rev. C. 1907; re-en. Sec. 88, R.C.M. 1921; Cal. Pol. C. Sec. 313; re-en. Sec. 88, R.C.M. 1935; amd. Sec. 1, Ch. 30, L. 1973; amd. Sec. 8, Ch. 309, L. 1977; R.C.M. 1947, 43-505.

History: En. 43-519 by Sec. 1, Ch. 560, L. 1977; R.C.M. 1947, 43-519.

5-4-402. Purpose. The legislature finds that it must accept the ultimate responsibility for the increase in the discretionary authority of state executive branch agencies, as evidenced by proliferating rules, forms, orders, and licensing proceedings before state agencies. The purpose of this Legislative History Act is to assure that statutes henceforth enacted to grant additional discretionary authority to state agencies are accompanied by a clear indication of the legislature's intent as to how such discretion is to be exercised and the legislature's purpose for delegating the authority.

History: En. 43-520 by Sec. 2, Ch. 560, L. 1977; R.C.M. 1947, 43-520.

5-4-403. Definition of delegation of authority. As used in 5-4-404, "delegation of authority" means a statutory authorization to:

(1) adopt rules implementing a statute; or

(2) license, as defined in 2-4-102, an activity or establishment regulated by statute.

History: En. 43-521 by Sec. 3, Ch. 560, L. 1977; R.C.M. 1947, 43-521.

5-4-404. Statement of intent. The legislature by its joint rules shall provide a procedure by which a statement of legislative intent shall be included with each bill containing a delegation of authority and may be included with all bills. A statement of intent shall be placed before each component of the legislature which sequentially considers the subject bill and may be amended in the same manner as the bill.

History: En. 43-522 by Sec. 4, Ch. 560, L. 1977; R.C.M. 1947, 43-522.

General Provisions — Licenses

5-7-101. Purposes of chapter — applicability. (1) The purposes of this chapter are to promote a high standard of ethics in the practice of lobbying, to prevent unfair and unethical lobbying practices, to provide for the licensing of lobbyists and the suspension or revocation of the licenses, to require elected officials to make public their business interests, and to require disclosure of the amounts of money spent for lobbying.

(2) Nothing in this chapter subjects any Montana citizen lobbying on his own behalf to any reporting requirements nor deprives any such citizen of the constitutional right to communicate with public officials.

History: En. Sec. 1, Ch. 157, L. 1959; amd. Sec. 19, Ch. 309, L. 1977; R.C.M. 1947, 43-801; amd. Sec. 1, I.M. No. 85, approved Nov. 4, 1980.

Whereupon such town becomes a city of the first, second, or third class; a city of the third class becomes a city of the second or first class; and a city of the second class becomes a city of the first class, as the case may be, to be governed under the provisions of this code relative to cities and towns.

(c) Chattel mortgages, mechanic's and other liens, and other instruments filed but not recorded shall not be transcribed, but the original instruments shall be transmitted to such other county or counties. The cost of transcribing, indexing, and transmitting such records shall be paid by warrants drawn by the board of county commissioners letting such contracts on the general fund of the abandoned county. All of the provisions of 7-2-2405 through 7-2-2407 shall apply to such transcribed records.

History: En. Sec. 13, Ch. 105, L. 1937; R.C.M. 1947, 16-4013.

(2) All funds of all school districts and of all other special districts of an abandoned and abolished county shall be transferred to and paid over to the county treasurer of the county to which the territory of such school district is attached and becomes a part and shall be accounted for by said county treasurer as the funds of such districts. If a joint school district is created, the state superintendent of public instruction shall designate the county treasurer to whom such funds are to be transferred and paid over. All taxes levied for all school funds and funds of other special districts of such abandoned and abolished county remaining unpaid at the time said county ceased to exist and all other money which would have accrued to such funds if said county had not been abandoned and abolished, when received by such county treasurer, shall be deposited to the credit of the proper school or special district funds.

7-2-2728. Effect of abandonment on county high schools. (1) If a county high school shall have been established in any abandoned and abolished county when such county ceases to exist, such county high school shall become the high school of the district in which it is situated or located and all property, both real and personal, owned by such county or acquired for and used in connection with the maintenance and operation of such county high school shall become and be the property of such school district to be used by such school district for the maintenance and operation of such district high school. All lawful existing contracts of such county high school shall be assumed by and become the contracts of such school district. The terms of office of all trustees of such county high school shall cease and terminate at the time the existence of said abandoned and abolished county shall cease and terminate.

(2) All money in all county high school funds shall be transferred and paid over to the treasurer of the county to which the territory in which the school district succeeding to the property of the county high school is attached and made a part and used and applied as follows:

(a) Any money in any bond sinking and interest funds shall be used for the payment and interest on any unpaid and outstanding high school bonds.

(b) (i) If there shall be outstanding any high school warrants at the time such county high school ceases to exist, then all money in such county high school funds, except sinking and interest funds, shall be used for the payment of such warrants, with interest thereon.

(ii) If such money is insufficient to pay all outstanding warrants, with the interest thereon, then such warrant indebtedness shall be assumed by and become warrant indebtedness of such school district.

(c) If there be no such high school warrants outstanding, then the money in such funds shall be transferred to the high school fund of the school district which, under the provisions of this part, is to maintain such high school as a district high school.

(3) (a) All taxes levied for any sinking and interest fund for county high school bonds and remaining unpaid at the time the abandoned and abolished county ceases to exist, when collected, shall be deposited to the credit of such fund.

(b) All taxes levied for high school purposes and remaining unpaid when such county ceases to exist and all other money which would have gone to such high school if the county had not been abandoned and abolished, when collected, shall be deposited to the proper high school funds of the district in the county to which the territory of the abandoned and abolished county has been attached and made a part.

History: En. Sec. 23, Ch. 105, L. 1937; R.C.M. 1947, 16-4023.

7-2-2729. Tax liability of property within abandoned county for debts of continuing county. (1) Whenever a county is abandoned and abolished and its territory is attached to and made a part of an adjoining county under the provisions of this part, none of the property situated within the boundaries of such abandoned and abolished county shall be subjected to taxation or taxed for the payment of any indebtedness of such adjoining county which may exist at the time such territory is attached to and made a part of such adjoining county.

(2) If an adjoining county to which the territory of an abandoned and abolished county is attached and made a part shall have outstanding and unpaid bonds at the time such territory is attached to and made a part of such county, such bonds shall be the indebtedness of such adjoining county. None of the property situated within the territory of the abandoned county shall be subjected to any taxes to pay the principal or interest of such bonds, but such taxes shall be levied only against the property within the boundaries of such adjoining county as the same existed before the territory of the abandoned and abolished county was attached to and made a part thereof.

History: En. Sec. 18, Ch. 105, L. 1937; R.C.M. 1947, 16-4018(part).

7-2-2730. Establishment of special warrant district or special funding bond district in continuing county. (1) After all warrants have been drawn and issued against the funds of such adjoining county to pay the claims and demands existing against such county on the date when the territory of such abandoned and abolished county was attached to such adjoining county, all money in the funds of such adjoining county shall be used and applied in payment of the warrants drawn against its respective funds. If such money is not sufficient to pay all of such warrants, with the interest thereon, then the board of county commissioners shall make an order creating a special warrant district and shall include within such district all of the territory of such adjoining county but shall not include therein any of the territory of such abandoned and abolished county and shall, thereafter and at the time of making levies for county purposes, levy a special tax against all taxable property in such district to pay the warrants, with interest thereon, outstanding against the funds of said county. The board may in its discretion extend such tax levy over a period of not to exceed 3 years.

(2) (a) If it shall appear to the board that it will require too large a tax levy to pay such warrant indebtedness, with interest thereon, within 3 years, such board, instead of creating a special warrant district, shall create and establish a special funding bond district and shall include within the boundaries thereof all of the territory within such adjoining county but shall not include therein any of the territory of the abandoned and abolished county attached to such adjoining county. After all money in the several funds of said county applicable thereto has been applied in payment of such outstanding warrants and interest thereon and without submitting the question of doing so to an election, such board may issue bonds in an amount sufficient to pay and redeem all such warrants remaining outstanding, with interest thereon.

(b) Such bonds shall be issued in the name of said adjoining county and shall contain recitals to the effect that the principal and interest thereof will be paid by millage tax levies against the property situated within the boundaries of said county as the same existed before the territory of such abandoned and abolished county was attached thereto and that none of the property within the territory of such abandoned and abolished county will be subjected to such levies. Except as otherwise provided herein, said bonds shall be issued and sold and tax levies shall be fixed and made to pay the principal and interest thereof as the same becomes due in the manner provided by 7-7-107, 7-7-108, 7-7-123, 7-7-124, 7-7-2104 through 7-7-2106, and parts 22 and 23 of chapter 7 and all the provisions thereof, so far as applicable thereto, shall apply to such bonds.

7-2-2741. Processing of claims against abandoned county. (1) All claims and demands against any abondoned and abolished county for salaries, services, wages, materials, and supplies; for all other current expenses; and for claims and demands accruing under contracts and for which said county was liable at the time it ceased to exist and which had not been approved and warrants issued therefor prior to the time it ceased to exist shall be presented to the board of county commissioners of the county designated in the petition for abandonment as the county to which its territory is attached and made a part. Except as provided in subsection (2), all such claims and demands shall be acted on by the board of such county, and warrants shall be issued in payment thereof in the same manner as though the same had been incurred by such county.

(2) All such warrants shall be drawn and issued against the proper funds of such abandoned and abolished county. No such claim or demand shall be approved or warrant issued in payment thereof if the amount of such claim or demand exceeds the unexpended balance of appropriation for such purpose contained in the budget of the abandoned and abolished county for the year in which the same was incurred.

History: En. Sec. 15, Ch. 105, L. 1937; R.C.M. 1947, 16-4015.

7-2-2742. Transfer and use of funds of abandoned county. (1) All money in each of the funds of an abandoned and abolished county shall be transferred to and paid over by the treasurer thereof to the treasurer of the county designated in the petition for abandonment as the county to which its territory is to be attached and become a part and shall be kept and maintained by such treasurer in separate funds in the name of such abandoned and abolished county and, except as provided in subsection (2), used and applied for paying warrants issued against such funds by the abandoned and abolished county prior to the time it ceased to exist and for paying warrants issued against such fund by the board of county commissioners of the county to which it is attached and becomes a part under the provisions of 7-2-2724 and 7-2-2741 and the interest on such warrants.

(2) Money in any bond sinking and interest funds of such abandoned and abolished county shall be used and applied for the sole purpose of paying the interest and principal becoming due on unpaid and outstanding bonds of such county.

History: En. Sec. 16, Ch. 105, L. 1937; R.C.M. 1947, 16-4016(part).

7-2-2743. Collection of taxes and other money. Taxes levied for all such funds which were delinquent on the day when such county ceased to exist and for which tax sales had not been held and all licenses and other money owing to such county at such time shall be collected by the treasurer of the county designated in the petition for abandonment as the county to which its territory is to be attached and become a part and placed in and deposited to the credit of the funds of such abandoned and abolished county to which the same properly belong.

(1) When all warrants issued and outstanding against any fund of an abandoned and abolished county, with the interest thereon, have been fully paid, any balance standing to the credit of such fund shall be transferred to any other fund or funds of such county in which there is not sufficient money to pay the warrants issued and outstanding against the same, with interest thereon.

(2) If, after payment of all warrants issued against all such funds, balances remain in any thereof, the same shall be transferred to and become a part of the bond sinking and interest funds of such abandoned county.

History: En. Sec. 16, Ch. 105, L. 1937; R.C.M. 1947, 16-4016(part).

7-2-2745. Procedure if insufficient funds — special warrant district or special funding bond district. (1) After all warrants have been drawn and issued against the funds of an abandoned and abolished county under the provisions of 7-2-2724 and 7-2-2741, if it shall appear to the satisfaction of the board of county commissioners of the county designated in the petition for abandonment as the county to which the territory of the abandoned and abolished county is to be attached and made a part that the money in the several funds of such abandoned and abolished county, together with all money which may be received for such funds from the payment and collection of delinquent taxes, unpaid licenses, and other sources owing to such abandoned and abolished county, will be insufficient to pay all outstanding and unpaid warrants issued and drawn against such funds, then the board of such county shall make an order creating a special warrant district and shall include within such district all of the territory embraced within the boundaries of the abandoned and abolished county at the time it ceased to exist.

(2) If it shall appear to the satisfaction of the board that a tax levy sufficient to pay such warrants and interest, when spread over a term of 3 years, will be too great a hardship on and too burdensome to the taxpayers owning property within the boundaries of such abandoned and abolished county, said board, instead of creating such special warrant district, shall create and establish a special funding bond district and shall include within the boundaries thereof all of the territory embraced within the boundaries of such abandoned and abolished district at the time it ceased to exist.

History: En. Sec. 16, Ch. 105, L. 1937; R.C.M. 1947, 16-4016(part).

7-2-2746. Details relating to special warrant district. (1) The board of county commissioners creating a special warrant district shall, thereafter and at the time of making and fixing tax levies for county purposes, make and fix a levy against all taxable property within such special warrant district for the payment of said warrants and the interest thereon. The proceeds of such levy, when collected, shall be deposited by the county treasurer in a separate fund which shall be used for the payment of said warrants and interest and for no other purpose.

(2) Said tax levy need not be made at such a rate as will pay all of said warrants, with interest, in 1 year, but if said board shall deem it for the best interests of the taxpayers owning property within such special warrant district, such levy may be spread over a term of not more than 3 years.

History: En. Sec. 16, Ch. 105, L. 1937; R.C.M. 1947, 16-4016(part).

The board of trustees shall adopt an appropriate seal for such district.

(2) (a) After such district has been created and established, the board of trustees shall direct the county treasurer to use and apply all money in the several funds of the abandoned and abolished county, except money in any bond sinking and interest funds, to the payment of warrants issued and outstanding against such funds, with the interest thereon. Said board of trustees shall thereupon issue and sell bonds of such special funding bond district in an amount sufficient to pay all warrants against such funds remaining outstanding and unpaid, with the interest thereon. (1) If any abandoned and abolished county shall have any bonds outstanding and unpaid at the time it ceases to exist, the territory within the boundaries of such county as they existed when such county so ceased to exist shall constitute a special district for the payment thereof. The board of county commissioners of the county designated in the petition for abandonment as the county to which the territory of such county is to be attached and made a part shall annually levy a tax against all taxable property in such taxing district sufficient to pay the interest and principal of such bonds as the same become due, and all of the provisions of 7-7-107, 7-7-108, 7-7-123, 7-7-124, 7-7-2104 through 7-7-2106, and parts 22 and 23 of chapter 7 shall apply to, govern, and control the levying and collection of such taxes and the payment of interest and principal thereof by the boards and officers of the county within which such district is situated.

(2) Any and all money in any bond sinking and interest funds of such abandoned and abolished county, when transmitted and paid over to the treasurer of the county to which the territory of such abandoned and abolished county has been attached, shall be credited to and deposited in a sinking and interest fund. All taxes levied for the payment of such bonds and interest and delinquent at the time such county ceased to exist, all taxes levied for such sinking and interest fund in accordance with the provisions of 7-2-2742 through 7-2-2750, and all other money coming to the hands of such county treasurer for the use or benefit of such abandoned county, when not required for any other purposes under the provisions of this part, shall be deposited to the credit of such sinking and interest fund and used for the payment of the principal and interest of such bonds and for no other purpose.

If, after all warrants issued and drawn by an abandoned and abolished district during its existence against its several funds and all warrants drawn and issued against said funds under the provisions of 7-2-2724 and 7-2-2741 have been fully paid, with the interest thereon:

Part 47

Annexation With the Provision of Services

7-2-4701. Short title. This part shall be entitled "The Planned Community Development Act of 1973".

History: En. 11-514 by Sec. 1, Ch. 364, L. 1974; R.C.M. 1947, 11-514.

7-2-4702. Findings. (1) It is declared as a matter of state policy that current annexation laws and planning methods incorporated in the Montana system are in many cases discriminatory and are in many of the Montana cities causing indiscriminate growth patterns and in many cases forcing citizens of municipalities to be annexed without provision for adequate city services extended and provided for them.

(2) Likewise, in many cities city government is annexing and adding to cities not to the benefit of those being annexed, but to the benefit of the city, merely to derive a greater tax base.

(3) Likewise, in many cities there are those lying on the perimeter of the city not within the corporate boundaries of a city that are deriving many benefits from the city without paying their just and equal share for these services.

History: En. 11-515 by Sec. 2, Ch. 364, L. 1974; R.C.M. 1947, 11-515(part).

7-2-4703. Purpose. It is the purpose of this part to develop a just and equitable system of adding to and increasing city boundaries for the state of Montana, which will develop the following firm policies:

(1) Sound urban development is essential to the continued economic development of this state, and any annexation prepared must be well planned in advance.

(2) Municipalities are created to provide the governmental services essential for sound urban development and for the protection of health, safety, and welfare in areas being intensively used for residential, commercial, industrial, institutional, and governmental purposes or in areas undergoing such development, and future annexations must consider these principles.

(3) Municipal boundaries should be extended in accordance with legislative standards applicable throughout the state to include such areas and to provide the high quality of governmental services needed for the public health, safety, and welfare.

(4) Areas annexed to municipalities in accordance with such uniform legislative standards should receive the services provided by the annexing municipality as soon as possible following annexation.

History: En. 11-515 by Sec. 2, Ch. 364, L. 1974; R.C.M. 1947, 11-515(part).

7-2-4704. Definitions. The following terms where used in this part have the following meanings except where the context clearly indicates a different meaning:

(1) "Contiguous" means any area which, at the time annexation procedures are initiated, either abuts directly on the municipal boundary or is separated from the municipal boundary by a street or street right-of-way, a creek or river, the right-of-way of a railroad or other public service corporation, lands owned by the city or some other political subdivision, or lands owned by the state.

(2) "Municipality" means any city or town under Montana law.

(3) "Resident freeholder" means a person who maintains his residence on real property in which he holds an estate of life or inheritance or of which he is the purchaser of such an estate under a contract for deed, some memorandum of which has been filed in the office of the county clerk and recorder.

History: En. 11-516 by Sec. 3, Ch. 364, L. 1974; R.C.M. 1947, 11-516.

7-2-4705. Annexation by municipalities providing services. (1) The governing body of any municipality may extend the corporate limits of such municipality under the procedure set forth in this part upon the initiation of the procedure by the governing body itself.

(2) Whenever the resident freeholders situated outside the corporate boundaries of any municipality, but contiguous thereto, desire to have real estate annexed to the municipality, they may file with the governing body of the municipality a petition bearing the signatures of 51% of the resident freeholders in the territory sought to be annexed, requesting a resolution stating the intent of the municipality to consider annexation. Upon passage of the resolution, the governing body shall follow the procedure in 7-2-4707 through 7-2-4713 and 7-2-4731(2).

History: En. 11-517 by Sec. 4, Ch. 364, L. 1974; R.C.M. 1947, 11-517(part); amd. Sec. 19, Ch. 250, L. 1979.

7-2-4706. Appeal if municipal governing body fails to act on petition. If the municipal governing body fails to act within 60 days, the petitioners may appeal to the district court under the procedure set down in 7-2-4741 through 7-2-4746.

The governing body of any municipality desiring to annex territory under the provisions of this part shall first pass a resolution stating the intent of the municipality to consider annexation. The date of the last publication shall not be more than 7 days preceding the date of the public hearing. History: En. 11-520 by Sec. 7, Ch. 364, L. 1974; R.C.M. 1947, 11-520(4).

7-2-4710. Protest. (1) For a period of 20 days after the public hearing provided for in 7-2-4707 through 7-2-4709, the governing body of the municipality shall receive expressions, in writing, of approval or disapproval of the proposed annexation from resident freeholders of the territory proposed to be annexed.

This report shall include:

(a) a map or maps of the municipality and adjacent territory to show the following information:

7-2-4732. Contents of plan for extension of services. (1) Specifically, the plans for the extension of services shall provide a long-range plan for extension of services and the acquisition of properties outside the corporate limits. This plan must show anticipated development a minimum of 5 years into the future, showing on a yearly basis how the municipality plans to extend services, develop and add sections to the city.

(2) The plans shall:

(a) provide for extending police protection, fire protection, garbage collection, and streets and street maintenance services to the area to be annexed on substantially the same basis and in the same manner as such services are provided within the rest of the municipality prior to annexation;

(b) provide for future extension of streets and of major trunk water mains, sewer outfall lines, and other utility services into the area to be annexed, so that when such streets and utility lines become necessary and are constructed, property owners in the area to be annexed will be able to secure such services, according to the policies in effect in such municipality for extending such services to individual lots or subdivisions;

(c) if extension of streets and water, sewer, or other utility lines into the area to be annexed is necessary, set forth a proposed timetable for construction of such streets and utility lines.

(3) A method must be set forth by which the municipality plans to finance extension of services into the area to be annexed. If the area is serviced currently by adequate water and sewage services, streets, curbs, and gutters and no capital improvements are needed to provide adequate services stipulated by this section and 7-2-4731, the municipality must provide the area to be annexed with a plan of how they plan to finance other services to be included within the district—mainly, police protection, fire protection, garbage collection, street, and street maintenance services, as well as continued utility service.

(4) In this annexation plan, it must be clearly stated that the entire municipality tends to share the tax burden for these services, and if so, the area may be annexed without a bond issue under the provisions of this part.

7-2-4734. Standards to be met before annexation can occur. A municipal governing body may extend the municipal corporate limits to include any area which meets the following standards:

(1) It must be contiguous to the municipality's boundaries at the time the annexation proceeding is begun.

(3) It must be included within and the proposed annexation must conform to a comprehensive plan as prescribed in Title 76, chapter 1.

(4) No part of the area may be included within the boundary, as existing at the inception of such attempted annexation, of any fire district organized under any of the provisions of part 21, chapter 33, if the fire district was originally organized at least 10 years prior to the inception of such attempted annexation. However, a single-ownership piece of land may be transferred from a fire district to a municipality by annexation as provided in 7-33-2127.

7-2-4735. Guidelines for new boundaries of municipality. In fixing new municipal boundaries, a municipal governing body shall:

(1) wherever practical, use natural topographic features such as ridgelines, streams, and creeks as boundaries; and

(2) if a street is used as a boundary, include within the municipality land on both sides of the street, with such outside boundary not extending more than 200 feet beyond the right-of-way of the street.

History: En. 11-519 by Sec. 6, Ch. 364, L. 1974; amd. Sec. 1, Ch. 81, L. 1977; R.C.M. 1947, 11-519(3).

7-2-4736. Preservation of existing garbage or solid waste service in the event of annexation. A municipality that annexes or incorporates additional area receiving garbage and solid waste disposal service by a motor carrier authorized by the public service commission to conduct such service may not provide competitive or similar garbage and solid waste disposal service to the area for 5 years following annexation except upon a proper showing to the public service commission that the existing carrier is unable or refuses to provide adequate service to the annexed or incorporated area, and after the expiration of 5 years, the municipality may provide such service only if a majority of the residents of the annexed or incorporated area request in writing to the municipality that such service be provided by the municipality. If a proper showing is made that the existing carrier is unable or refuses to provide adequate service to the annexed or incorporated area or if a majority of the residents request service from the municipality, the municipality may assume sole jurisdiction for garbage and solid waste disposal service to the entire annexed or incorporated area.

7-2-4737 through 7-2-4740 reserved.

7-2-4741. Right to court review when area annexed. (1) Within 30 days following the passage of an annexation ordinance under authority of this part, either a majority of the resident freeholders in the territory or the owners of more than 75% in assessed valuation of the real estate in the territory who believe that they will suffer material injury by reason of the failure of the municipal governing body to comply with the procedure set forth in this part or to meet the requirements set forth in 7-2-4734 and 7-2-4735, as they apply to their property, may file a petition in the district court of the district in which the municipality is located seeking review of the action of the governing board and serve a copy of the petition on the municipality in the manner of service of civil process.

(2) If two or more petitions for review are submitted to the court, the court may consolidate all such petitions for review at a single hearing.

History: En. 11-522 by Sec. 9, Ch. 364, L. 1974; R.C.M. 1947, 11-522(1), (2).

7-2-4742. Court review and decision when area annexed. (1) The review authorized under 7-2-4741 shall be conducted by the court without a jury. The court may hear oral arguments and receive written briefs and may take evidence intended to show that either:

(a) the statutory procedure was not followed; or

(b) the provisions of 7-2-4731 through 7-2-4735 were not met.

(2) The court may affirm the action of the governing body without change, or it may:

(a) remand the ordinance to the municipal governing body for further proceedings if procedural irregularities are found to have materially prejudiced the substantive rights of any of the petitioners;

(b) remand the ordinance to the municipal governing body for amendment of the boundaries to conform to the provisions of 7-2-4734 and 7-2-4735, but the court cannot remand the ordinance to the municipal governing body with directions to add an area to the municipality which was not included in the notice of public hearing and not provided for in plans for service; or

(c) remand the report to the municipal governing body for amendment of the plans for providing services to the end that the provisions of 7-2-4731 through 7-2-4733 are satisfied.

(3) If any municipality fails to take action in accordance with the court's instructions upon remand within 3 months from receipt of such instructions, the court may in its discretion extend the time for compliance.

History: En. 11-522 by Sec. 9, Ch. 364, L. 1974; R.C.M. 1947, 11-522(3).

7-2-4744. Appeal from district court. Any party to the review proceedings, authorized under 7-2-4741 including the municipality, may appeal to the Montana supreme court from the final judgment of the district court under rules of procedure applicable in other civil cases. The appealing party may apply to the lower court for a stay in its final determination or a stay of the annexation ordinance, whichever shall be appropriate, pending the outcome of the appeal to the higher court. The lower court may, with the agreement of the municipality, permit annexation to be effective with respect to any part of the area concerning which no appeal is being made.

History: En. 11-522 by Sec. 9, Ch. 364, L. 1974; R.C.M. 1947, 11-522(part).

7-2-4745. Effect of appeal on effective date of annexation. If part or all of the area annexed under the terms of an annexation ordinance is the subject of an appeal to the lower or higher court on the effective date of the ordinance, then the ordinance shall be deemed amended to make the effective date with respect to such area the date of the final judgment of the lower or higher court, whichever is appropriate, or the date the municipal governing board completes action to make the ordinance conform to the court's instructions in the event of remand.

History: En. 11-522 by Sec. 9, Ch. 364, L. 1974; R.C.M. 1947, 11-522(part).

No member of the commission shall, during the time for which elected, be chosen manager. In case of the absence or disability of the manager, the commission may designate some responsible person to perform the duties of the office. The manager shall receive such compensation as may be fixed by the commission.

(2) The manager shall not be appointed for a definite term but shall be removable at the pleasure of the commission. In case the commission determines to remove the manager, he shall, if he so demands, be given a written statement of the reason alleged for the proposed removal and the right to be heard thereon at a public meeting of the commission prior to the date on which his final removal shall take effect, but pending and during such hearing the commission may suspend him from office. (2) The manager shall be responsible to the commission for the proper administration of the affairs of the municipality placed in his charge and to that end shall appoint all officers and employees in the administrative service of the municipality, except as otherwise provided in this part or part 13 and except as he may authorize the head of a department or office responsible to him to appoint subordinates in such department or office.

Upon such demand the officer making the layoff, suspension, or removal shall supply the person notified thereof with a written statement of the reasons therefor, and the manager shall fix a time and place for the public hearing. Following the public hearing the manager shall either confirm the layoff, suspension, or removal as specified in the notice, reinstate the person so notified in the service, or make such other disposition of the matter as in his opinion the good of the service may require.

(2) The decision of the manager in any such case shall be final, and there shall be no appeal therefrom to any officer, body, or court whatsoever. A copy of the written statement of reasons given for any layoff, suspension, or removal and a copy of any written reply thereto by the officer or employee involved, together with a copy of the decision of the manager, shall be filed as a public record in the office of the clerk.

Except for the purpose of inquiry, the commission and its members shall deal with that portion of the administrative service for which the manager is responsible solely through the manager, and neither the commission nor any member thereof shall give orders to any subordinate of the manager either publicly or privately.

(2) Any violation of the provisions of this section by a member of the commission shall be a misdemeanor, conviction of which shall immediately forfeit the office of the member so convicted.

Additional functions and duties may be by ordinance assigned to departments and offices created by this part or part 13, but no function or duty assigned by this part or part 13 to any such department or office shall be discontinued or assigned to any other department or office. If the manager so recommends and the commission so authorizes, the manager may appoint one person to act as the head of two or more departments or offices, but the department of law may not thus be joined with any other department, nor may the manager be authorized to act as head of the department of finance or of any office therein other than of purchasing agent or assessor.

(2) The director of finance shall maintain in his office a list of all persons in the administrative service of the municipality, showing in connection with each name the position held, the date of appointment, the character of employment, and the rate of compensation. The treasurer shall not pay nor shall the director of finance issue any warrant for the payment of any salary or compensation to any person whose name does not appear upon such list, nor shall payment be made at a rate other than that specified on such list. Any sum paid contrary to the foregoing provisions of this section may be recovered from any officer paying or authorizing the payment thereof or from the surety on his official bond. If through the failure of any officer to give information to the director of finance as required in this section or through omission or error in such information, payment is made to any person whose name should not be on such list or payment is made in excess of the amount which any person whose name is rightfully on the list should receive, then the amount of any such payment or excess payment may be recovered from the officer by reason of whose failure, omission, or error the payment or excess payment was made or from the surety on his official bond.

The compensation of officers and employees in the administrative service of the municipality shall be fixed by ordinance, but all positions in such service, except those of heads of departments and heads of offices not included within regular departments, shall, for purposes of compensation, be graded and classified by the manager according to duties and responsibilities. The commission shall by ordinance establish a schedule of compensation for the positions so graded and classified, which shall prescribe uniform compensation for like service as determined by the grading and classification by the manager. Such schedule of compensation may establish a minimum and maximum for any grade, and an increase in compensation within the limits provided for any grade may be granted by the manager upon the basis of efficiency and seniority.
